SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The opening of the Pacific Coast Baseball League season was celebrated here today by a parade of baseball notables, with Mayor Rolph and other city officials in line, with a band and an automobile procession of fans. President Al Baum of the league led the march, with President Ish and Vice-President J. Cal Ewing of the San Francisco club and President Walter and Secretary McFarlan of Oakland, Umpires George Hildebrand and George Wheeler came next, followed by Mayor Rolph and members of the board of supervisors.

The parade wound through the downtown streets for an hour and a half before the game between San Francisco and Oakland.

BAUM HAS BEEN BUSY.

With the honors falling to the California fans to inaugurate baseball in 1912 the fall of the season, President Baum went to work to make that season a hummer. At the head of the league they put a young fellow named Allan T. Baum, and this fellow Baum went to work with a might and main to show that he was a true loyal subject of old King Baseball, and well had he prepared things for the 1912 season.

Long before noon fans began to arrive at the ball park and when the big parade was ready for the "get away" fully 3000 of the faithful were standing round with an anxious look upon their faces.

They didn't have to wait long for the big show to commence, for promptly at 12:30 J. Cal Ewing gave the signal to pile into the buzz wagons.

First came the band, that made more noise than a circus calliope. Then came President Baum and "Jim" Rolph, mayor of the big town. Following these were the Oakland and San Francisco teams in their new uniforms, war correspondents, invited guests and a bunch of the future greeds.

Down Valencia street shot the parade and the first start for the opening day was made. Around the business streets of San Francisco whizzed the wagons to show the fans and fanettes that couldn't get away what was in store for them, and then back to ball park whizzed the wagons again.

It was now 2 p. m. and already a

Seized With Fit on Brink Of Precipice; Is Killed

RIVERSIDE, April 2.—Seized with an epileptic attack on the brink of a precipice at the Corona rock quarry, Patrick Carr, assistant foreman of the quarry, fell 200 feet to death yesterday. Every bone in his body was broken.

Seek Report on Japanese Activity at Magdalena Bay

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The Senate adopted today a resolution presented by Senator Lodge requesting the President if not incompatible with public interest, to furnish the Senate all information bearing on reported Japanese activity at Magdalena Bay, Lower California.

Phonograph Serves For Burglar Alarm

The Crash of Falling Machine Arouses Family, but the Thief Escapes.

ALAMEDA, April 2.—A graphophone in the home of Jacob Waggoner at 2409 Santa Clara avenue proved a good burglar alarm when it was knocked off the table at 2 o'clock this morning by a burglar, who had entered the Waggoner residence through a side window. The crash caused by the falling machine and the pile of phonograph records aroused the Waggoner family. The burglar promptly jumped back through the window to safety without securing any plunder. It was believed that the burglar knew Waggoner was paid a large money yesterday.

Italians Blockade Ports on Red Sea

A Cruiser Cuts Cable Between Kamarin Island and Mainland.

PERIM, Red Sea, April 2.—The captain of the Italian cruiser Piemonte proclaimed today a blockade of the ports of Leohela and Salfi, on the Yemen coast of the Red Sea, and also of Kamarin Island, the cable station, which connects various cities on the Arabian shore with Egypt. The Italian war vessel has severed the connections by cable between Kamarin and the Arabian mainland. The British steamer Woodcock has been arrested by the Italians in the vicinity of Perim because she was trans-

OPEN GAME WITH BIG PARADE

Autos With Thousands of Fans Drive to the Los Angeles Ball Park

Sacramento Likewise Starts Race for Pennant With Procession

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—Preceded by a parade the 1912 season of the Pacific Coast Baseball League was opened here this afternoon with Los Angeles meeting the champion Portland team at Washington park.

The parade formed at the city hall at 1 o'clock. Automobiles containing Mayor Alexander and the teams, the officers of the clubs and thousands of fans went to the baseball park after driving through the principal streets of the business section. Upon arrival at the park Mayor Alexander pitched the first ball, which Joseph Scott, attorney and member of the Los Angeles board of education, tried to stop. The weather was fine and the enthusiasm among the fans was great. The umpires were McGreevy and Casey instead of McGreevy and Mertes as previously arranged.

"Babe" Reams, who was tried out by the Vernon club, was purchased by the Los Angeles team today and played shortstop this afternoon instead of Boles, as scheduled yesterday. Otherwise the lineups remained the same.

PARADE IN STREETS

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Following an automobile parade through the principal streets, the Sacramento and Vernon baseball teams of the Pacific Coast league opened the regular season this afternoon at Buffalo park. Mayor Beard pitched the first ball and Casey and Henley were the indicator men. The two teams did practically no work this morning, but rested up for the afternoon.

The teams lined up as follows:

Sacramento	Position	Vernon	Position
Arrelano	Pitchers	Stewart	Arrelano
Williams	Catcher	Castleton	Coeck
Patterson	First Base	Miller	Patterson
Helster	Second Base	Brushner	Helster
Sheehan	Third Base	Burrell	Sheehan
O'Rourke	Shortstop	McDonald	O'Rourke
Lewis	Left Field	Carlyle	Lewis
Swain	Center Field	Kane	Swain

500-Pound Woman Buried in Kansas

Ten Men Required to Lower the Casket Into Grave; Ambulance Is Hearse.

GALENA, Kan., April 2.—Mrs. Mary Crum, who weighed nearly 500 pounds, was buried here yesterday. The corpse was taken to the cemetery in an ambulance, the undertaker fearing to test the strength of his hearse. Ten men were required to lower the casket into the grave. The normal weight of Mrs. Crum was over 200 pounds, but for months she had suffered from dropsy.

Countess Near Death In Automobile Crash

Daughter of Ambassador Leishman Has Narrow Escape in Berlin.

BERLIN, April 1.—A motor car belonging to John G. A. Leishman, United States ambassador to Germany, in which his daughter, the Countess Louise de Gontaut-Biron, was driving, was badly damaged in a collision with a taxi-cab last night. None of its occupants was injured. The passengers in the taxi-cab were bruised.

Oakland Young Folk Wed in Sacramento

At a quiet ceremony performed in Sacramento today Miss Jessie I. Cheney, in this city, became the bride of Rex Sander, chief engineer of the Oakland plant of the California Ice Company. The young couple will return tomorrow, and will make their home here.

THOUSANDS BATTLE TO SAVE LEVEES FROM FLOOD Great Damage Is Done Throughout the Mississippi Valley States

WASHINGTON, April 2.—In a special forecast today the weather bureau experts here predicted the floods in the lower Mississippi valley would be the greatest in history. Heavy rains on the Tennessee, Cumberland and lower Ohio watersheds have caused the Mississippi to rise rapidly.

The most serious flood condition today was reported from Hickman, Ky., where the waters of the Missouri river broke through the levees, placed a portion of the town under 8 feet of water and made homeless 2000 persons.

No accurate estimate of the damage from floods in various parts of the country in the last week is available, but it is known that it will aggregate many hundreds of thousands of dollars. So enormous, indeed, has been the damage that President Taft sent a message to Congress today urging the immediate appropriation of a half million dollars to be used in strengthening the levees along the Mississippi and Missouri rivers.

At Cairo, Ill., a stage of 54.5 feet is predicted for Wednesday, with a possibility of 58 feet in four or five days. At Memphis a stage of 44 feet is predicted in five or six days, with possibly a higher stage if the levees hold.

At Cairo, Ill., April 2.—Railroads and citizens co-operated today in attempting to keep the Ohio and Mississippi rivers out of Cairo. Citizens aided in patrolling the levees north of here in the drainage districts. The railroad brought hundreds of men here for emergency work.

The river gauge registered 53.5 feet today, 1.3 feet higher than previous.

One Killed, Two Wounded By New Deputy Marshal

CENTRALIA, Ill., April 2.—Charles Brod was killed and Jess Bay seriously and Henry Grose fatally wounded early today by George Wingler, a deputy marshal in a fight at Odin, seven miles north of here.

Brod and his companions were creating a disturbance when they were overtaken by George Fimm, the village marshal. Fimm, after deputizing Wingler, started to take two of the young men home. Brod, according to reports, knocked down Wingler, who emptied his revolver into the crowd with fatal results. Wingler was held for the coroner's inquest.

reached here. She is said to have drowned herself in a bath tub after having tied a flat iron about her neck to keep her head under water. Mrs. Gorsuch was divorced and had made her home with relatives at Las Vegas.

TAKES GAS IN EFFORT TO DIE

"Give Me the Drug Ere I Fly a Maniac," Writes Despondent Man

Leaves Long Letter in Which Life and Death Are Discussed

Leaving several long dissertations on poetry, science and religion, A. H. Mitchell, a wealthy rancher of Napa, attempted to commit suicide in a rooming house at 138 Telegraph avenue last night after eluding his nurses at the Napehem Sanatorium, 470 Twenty-eighth street where he had been undergoing treatment for neurasthenia.

The odor of gas was detected by other occupants about 8 o'clock this morning and the police called. They removed Mitchell to the receiving hospital where oxygen promptly administered by Steward Platt will probably save his life.

Although suffering from the effects of the nervous trouble, Mitchell left notes stating that his mind was clear and that he had thoroughly deliberated upon his course. He wrote: "I tried to bribe a boy to give me some drug but he said it was too dangerous and finally scared me into giving him a check to keep quiet. I did not have any cash."

CHECK IS FOUND

Among his effects was found a check made out in favor of Will McCarthy for $10. It was dated yesterday, but for some reason the payee did not take the paper.

Notes left by the would-be suicide were addressed to W. L. Mitchell of Napa and to Mrs. E. J. Bray, Bacon building, this city.

According to Dr. Maxson of the sanatorium, Mitchell was in his room quietly reading at 10 o'clock last night. He was not missed until this morning. The patient was taken to the sanatorium about ten days ago by his brother and other relatives and his case was looked upon as one that would yield favorably to treatment.

Some of the notes had evidently been written at the sanatorium and were in ink while others were completed with pencil probably after he had taken his room at the lodging house.

In explaining his reason for taking gas he wrote:

AVAILS "BLACK BOTTLE."

"I am sorry to do this but I tried to get a boy to get some drugs but he was too scared or honest so I planned this. I paid him something to keep him quiet." One of his notes regarding the payment of money to "the boy" contradicts the other, but that he was intent upon obtaining some drug was obvious from the fact that he related in one of his notes that he had sent to the ranch at Napa for the "black bottle" which contained chloral and hoped that it would arrive soon. His letter to Mrs. Bray follows:

Christian Science may be all right, but it doesn't seem to be of much practical use in curing me. I am beginning to think this, as some claim that spiritual manifestations are all the life of the grave, the occult action of mortal mind, and I think nothing comes from the other side of the grave for there is nothing to come. Death ends all, hence there is nothing to bear out the pains and they are easily controlled by drugs.

The dread of death is quitting life, losing its joys, action, aspirations, retrieving mistakes, planning new achievements. When crippled and distressed bodies only remain there isn't much to lose.

For me, no man facing the unknown sees more infinite sadness in what I leave. Across the way lies heaven, Los Gatos. My mind is as clear and bright as the April sky. I watch sunshine and cloud shadow-chase one another across the landscape. To watch the changing tones and colors of blue mountains beyond Los Altos and Los Gatos and the rim of Santa Clara valley and

HELEN GOULD TO VISIT IN THIS CITY

Philanthropist to Be Guest of Young Women's Christian Association.

Will Spend But Half Hour in This City With Those of Her Party.

Miss Helen Gould, the philanthropist of New York, and her party have accepted an invitation to visit the local Young Women's Christian Association tomorrow morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock. They will be received by the board of directors and managers of the association, who will escort the hostess and her friends through the administration building, Fourteenth and Castro streets. Owing to many pressing engagements Miss Gould will remain in this city but half an hour. During that time she will be greeted by the members of the association. The affair will not be public.

The officers of the Young Women's Christian Association, who will welcome Miss Gould, are: Miss Grace Fisher, Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Mrs. C. M. Hill, Mrs. Eliza Wolfenden, Miss Coribel Williams, Mrs. Clarence E. Wells, Mrs. F. Barbour, Mrs. L. W. Burpee, Mrs. Vernon Waldron, Mrs. George H. Collins, Miss Augusta Clow, Mrs. J. H. Cobble, Mrs. J. F. Ames, Mrs. H. E. Carleton, Mrs. E. M. Hurd, Mrs. H. C. Ingram, Miss Janice C. Haight, Mrs. E. G. Harper, Mrs. E. J. McVicker, Mrs. R. W. Neighbor, Mrs. Warren Olney Jr., Mrs. A. C. Pease, Mrs. Samuel Prather, Mrs. C. H. Rowe, Mrs. Clinton Walker and Mrs. E. A. Young.

DREDGING BEGINS FOR S. P. DOCKS

Western Harbor Scene of Work; Extensions Will Be Made Soon.

Active operations on dredging for the Southern Pacific company's proposed western docks began this morning when dredge No. 4, of the company was shifted around to the western part of the harbor and put to work. The plan for the new wharves are nearly all down and the docks will soon be built out from the wharf proper. According to officials of the Southern Pacific several dredges will soon be ordered to co-operate with No. 4 in deepening the western waters. The completion of these docks will be the signal for the removal of Long wharf. The shipping which at present is being handled over that portion of the front will then be done over the new docks which will be fitted out with more modern facilities.

The first "indivisible" of the fleet of the North Atlantic Steamship Co. to go on the way for overhauling in preparation for the coming season was the bark Olympic which shifted from her berth on the mudflats yesterday afternoon to the local yards of Moore and Scott, by the Oakland Launch and Tugboat Co. The wind whistled over the water and the Olympic side where she will pick up supplies and canneries hands and will then sail for Bristol Bay. The bark Star of England of the Alaska Packers Association was "shifted" from her berth alongside her owners' Alameda wharves this morning by Seward's tug and was tied up alongside the United Engineering Works. She will be put on the local company's ways and will sail for Bristol Bay.

The steamer Watson, Captain Bartles, called yesterday afternoon from Long wharf for Seattle and Tacoma. The vessel arrived here yesterday at 3 o'clock and by 7 o'clock had worked out after picking up a bumper cargo of freight. Arriving here direct from Manzanillo via San Pedro the steamer Tampico tied up at Long wharf this morning. She reports a rough passage. She is picking up a freight cargo from Long wharf.

The steam schooner Pasadena, Captain McGovern, is at Long wharf discharging lumber.

The schooner Tartar is at the city wharf discharging hay consigned to B. S. Smith.

The steam schooner Daisy shifted around from Long wharf yesterday afternoon. She is at the Hunter Lumber company's wharf discharging her lumber cargo. The vessel is in charge of Captain Smith and comes from Willapa Harbor.

HENNINGER GUILTY OF FRAUD, SAYS JURY

J. G. Henninger, who for the last two weeks has been on trial before Judge Ellsworth on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, was convicted by a jury late yesterday for the second time. A former verdict having been set aside on a technicality.

Henninger was indicted on a complaint of Dominio Lavagetto, who complained that he had been induced to purchase property at Seward's street, on the representation that it was not incumbered, but later found that it had a first mortgage and a mechanic's lien upon it. He paid Henninger $1000, according to the complaint.

Henninger is an aged man and the jury recommended him to the mercy of the court, who will sentence him next Thursday. Deputy District Attorney Walter Burpee and Deputy W. J. Satterwhite conducted the trial for the prosecution.

OAKLAND BEAUTY IS NOTED FOR HER CHARM AS HOSTESS MRS. WICKHAM HAVENS HAS HOST OF FRIENDS IN THIS CITY

Chosen by Tribune Committee for Place Among Ten Most Beautiful Women in Society on This Side of the Bay

MRS. WICKHAM HAVENS, whose name has been included in the list of the ten most beautiful women in Oakland society by THE TRIBUNE'S special committee, is one of the social leaders about the bay. She entertains frequently and elaborately at her home in Piedmont, at Grand and Sheridan avenues, and is widely known for her charm as a hostess. Mrs. Havens was Miss Florence Walker before her marriage to the local financier and has been a resident of Oakland since her girlhood, having a wide circle of friends and acquaintances here. In choosing the remaining nine women entitled to be called the most beautiful in local society, THE TRIBUNE'S committee, which was headed by Mrs. Isaac Requa, selected the following: Mrs. Prentiss Selby, Mrs. Philip T. Clay, Mrs. William G. Henshaw, Mrs. Charles Minor Goodall, Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton, Mrs. Willard Williamson, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Miss Lilla Lovell and Miss Marian Stone.

PLAN LAND SALES TO BUILD NEW HIGHWAYS

The Chamber of Commerce has been requested by the Denver Real Estate Exchange to endorse a proposition for the sale of 1,000,000 acres of government land in each of the far-western states, the proceeds to be devoted to the construction of good roads in those states. A bill to that effect is being considered in introduction in Congress at an early date.

According to the advocates of the project, there are large sections of land at present of little value in the western states. With improved roads, these lands would be opened up, and greatly increased in value. The sale of approximately 1,000,000 acres in each state would be opened up, and greatly increased in value. The sale of approximately 1,000,000 acres in each state would be opened up, and greatly increased in value. The sale of approximately 1,000,000 acres in each state would be opened up, and greatly increased in value.

REAL ESTATE BROKER IS GRANTED DIVORCE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Andrew Glassell, a real estate broker, was granted a divorce this morning from Rieta Ring Glassell by Superior Judge Cabanillas. The couple formerly resided in Los Angeles where Glassell had large interests. They came here a year ago and since then, according to the husband's testimony, his wife has refused to live with him. She wrote to him that she would have left him long ago but for the fact that their children were young. Now that they had grown up she declined to return to him.

BALDWIN ESTATE NOW $20,000,000

Tremendous Increase in Land Values Brings Sum Up to Unexpected Figure.

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—Following on the heels of the decision against Anita Baldwin, H. A. Unruh, for thirty years executor of the estate of E. J. Baldwin, yesterday made the surprising announcement that each of the Baldwin heirs, Mrs. Hull McLaughry and Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker, will receive more than $10,000,000.

The value of the estate today is placed by Unruh at more than $20,000,000. There are 28,000 acres of land without incumbrance. He says the average value is $1,000 an acre. The valuation of $30,000,000 is generally accepted as a conservative one.

For three or four years prior to his death Baldwin did not know whether he was a rich man or one who would be bankrupt when the mortgages were foreclosed.

When the heirs met after his death to hear the details of the situation from Unruh, they shook their heads over the tale.

They were shown the figures and learned the astonishing fact that "Uncle" Baldwin had paid more than $4,000,000 in interest on money raised by mortgaging his Los Angeles county real estate and the Baldwin hotel in San Francisco.

Debt was eating up his resources, employees demanding wages, tradesmen presenting bills, even household servants were not paid.

The increase in land values and the management of Unruh have brought the estate through in such splendid shape that it is today one of the most valuable in America.

More than $20,000,000 worth of real estate, which will be turned over to the heirs, is part of great ranches bought by Baldwin in 1876, 1876 and 1877 for considerably less than $1,000,000.

Unruh has sold 8000 acres since Baldwin's death and large parcels had been disposed of by Baldwin himself, so that the value, $20,000,000, applies to less than half the land that was bought for less than $1,000,000.

Beautiful Santa Anita, originally 8500 acres, was bought from Kasper Cohn and M. A. Newman for $225,000. Four thousand acres of this remain, and the value is at least $2000 an acre, or a total of $8,000,000.

Unruh, whose remarkable sagacity in handling the property the last few years has meant millions for the heirs, is a man well toward seventy, but still clear brained and alert.

It is considered unlikely that the attorney for Bertrice Anita Turner, who attacked the will as a daughter, will petition the supreme court for a rehearing. The court upheld the decision of the Los Angeles superior court against her claim.

Copy of the supreme court decision will be examined today by I. B. Dockweiler and Hutton & Williams, who represent the girl, and they will probably determine with expedition whether or not to continue the fight.

DIES AFTER ONE YEAR'S ILLNESS

Neil E. MacLeod, Pioneer Railroad Employee, Passes Away Here.

After an illness of over a year Neil E. MacLeod, pioneer of Oakland and for thirty years an employee of the Southern Pacific, passed away at his home, 746 Walker avenue, yesterday at 11 o'clock.

MacLeod was 64 years of age. Stomach trouble was the cause of death.

Neil E. MacLeod came to Oakland about 40 years ago when a mere boy, having come to this country from Scotland. He entered the railroad service which became his life work.

He is survived by several children, and has since the death of his wife, several years ago, made his home with his eldest daughter. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from Teague home, Rev. F. L. Goodspeed officiating.

MacLeod is survived by the following children: Mrs. Teague, Mrs. W. E. Riddle, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Anna MacLeod and George W. MacLeod.

ALIMONY PAYERS MUST BE PROMPT

Those Who Fail to Make Payments Are to Be Prosecuted.

Hereafter husbands who fail to pay alimony to their divorced wives will be prosecuted on felony charges, according to a statement made yesterday by Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers, who announced that District Attorney W. H. Donahue was determined that the law in that particular would hereafter be strictly observed in accordance with a recent supreme court decision which has upheld the statute.

Under certain circumstances a delinquent husband and father may be cited to appear and show cause for his failure to provide, but he also may be arrested at once and lodged in the county jail until his case can be heard.

GABRIEL HANOTAUX TO HEAD DELEGATION

PARIS, April 2.—The French mission, which is to convey to America the bronze bust of "La France" by August Rodin, for presentation to the United States, to be placed at the base of the monument to be dedicated next June to Samuel De Champlain, the French navigator and explorer, has been completed. The delegation, under the leadership of Gabriel Hanotaux, the historian and former foreign minister, will sail on board La France of the French transatlantic line on her maiden voyage on April 20 for New York.

YOUTH WHO ATTEMPTED ROBBERY GETS PROBATION

J. W. McCarthy, who came from the East several months ago and got into trouble soon afterwards through participating with three other youths in an attempted robbery of the Broadway store in Hannan street, was sentenced to four years probation by Judge Ellsworth this morning with the understanding that he should obtain satisfactory employment before his release from custody.

TO HOLD SPRING
ART EXHIBITION

Opening Reception of Association to Take Place April 4.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The annual spring exhibition of the San Francisco Art Association will be held at the San Francisco Institute of Art, beginning April 5 and ending May 3, 1912.

An opening reception will be given Thursday evening, April 4 for members of the association and contributing artists, on which occasion a musical program will be rendered.

Cards will be given members of the association when they visit the exhibition entitling them to participate in the biennial distribution of paintings, studies and sketches contributed by artist members, which takes place on May 2. The members of the association contributing to the exhibition are:

Mary D. Barber, Arthur Beckwith, Charlotte E. B. Morgan, G. Cadanese, Alice E. Chittenden, E. W. Currier, Carl Dahlgren, Mrs. D. W. Gelwick, Lola Hall, Annie L. Harmon, Carlos J. Hittell, Carl Jonnevold, Caroline Rixford Johnson, C. Capel Judson, Bertha Stringer Lee, J. P. McLeask, Charles A. Rogers, Edna St. John Smith, John A. Stanton, Theodore Wores, Ruth L. McCarthy, M. DeNenlo Morgan, Stella G. Trask.

ELY, Nev., April 2.—Arrangements are now being made to irrigate 35,000 acres of land in Lincoln county. A number of Oakland men are behind the scheme. J. H. Smith of Oakland, accompanied by A. E. Colwell, County Commissioner of White Pine county and several others, went to the land a few days ago and are now surveying for the irrigation system.

They intend to use the water of two streams for irrigation purposes and also for the purpose of generating electrical power. Some of the water holes are very deep and will furnish all the water necessary. It is the plan of the men who will irrigate this land to colonize it under the Carey act.

REFERS TO TROUBLE.

The address reviews the absence of disorder in the convention hall on the opening day and refers to the opposition as "a disorderly mob." It calls upon the people of Alaska to support the candidacy of Jennings, who, it says, is in entire accord with the platform adopted by the regular convention.

The Republican party is arraigned in the following language:

"For more than a decade Alaska has suffered from mismanagement and neglect of Republican administrations. With absolute power through three administrations to govern Alaska, the rights never denied before to American citizens and to pass much needed laws for the upbuilding and development of the territory the Republican party has done nothing but mislead us as the spoils of administration favorites and henchmen until conditions have become unbearable.

"Every sign of the times points unmistakably to the election of a Democratic administration and Congress, and Alaska is true to herself the time is at hand when she can and will receive the recognition and secure the grants of these rights she has so long demanded and obtain the relief she so sorely needs."

age From Dr. A. S. Kelley
for $20,000.

Property on the south side of Twelfth street between Alice and Jackson, 37x100 feet, was sold today by Dr. A. S. Kelley, a physician of this city, to N. S. Sachs of San Francisco. The consideration was $20,000 and the transfer was made through the agency of the Frank K. Mott Company.

An old building which has occupied the land is being torn down and Sachs announces that he will erect a modern fireproof structure.

Twelfth street between Broadway and Lake Merritt is steadily forging to the front as an important business district and has attracted the attention of many outside investors. The Frank K. Mott Company makes the announcement that the majority of sales made in downtown property through their office in the last two months have been to people from other sections of the state. Oakland is daily receiving more attention from moneyed men and is looked upon as the best side of the bay for investment. The great progress that the city has made in the last few years is the cause of a good deal of favorable comment and interest from the growing list of visitors.

ADmits FORGERY, BUT PLEADS FOR CLEMENCY
SACRAMENTO, April 2.—H. M. Goodrich pleaded guilty to forging a $50 check on a local realty firm today, and was sentenced to four years in San Quentin prison.

Goodrich confessed his guilt, but made a plea for leniency on the ground that he has an aged mother, a wife and a sister dependent upon him for support.

PRESS REFERENCE BOOK IS ISSUED

"Notables of Southwest," Valuable Work, Sent Out by Los Angeles Examiner.

"Notables of the Southwest, a press reference library, containing information and portraits of prominent men, principally of this State, is the latest publication having bearing on the history of California. The book is the work of the Los Angeles Examiner, and is one of the most complete collections of biographies of well known men to be printed for some time.

The new book will be placed in the different libraries, colleges, and newspaper offices of the country, not only as a monument to the State of California, but as a guide to any wishing to learn of its leading men.

The book is primarily a publisher's utility bureau, according to the preface of the work, and is intended as such. In it can be found basic facts in the life of every leading business man and prominent character, date of birth, leading events, and other data. Half tons of the latest photographs obtainable are also to be found.

"The facts regarding men are often jumbled," says the preface, "owing to the necessity of gathering them at a moment's notice. Every precaution has been taken in this book to have the facts correct and the photographs of a recent date."

The publication is the Los Angeles Examiner's contribution to the newspapers of the United States, to aid them in setting forth correctly the facts regarding the men of the southwest. The new book will be sent to the International News Service, leading Associated and United Press newspapers, as well as to leading weeklies. It will also be placed in leading public and college libraries.

The book is handsomely bound, in flexible Morocco leather, and contains a preface written by Othman Stevens. Among the Oakland men in the book are Harmon Bell, Frank W. Bigger, M. C. Chapman, F. C. Havens, E. A. Heron, W. J. Matthews, Frank K. Mott and Charles E. Snook.

Sailor Declares He Murdered
Dr. Helen Knabe for $1500
in Indianapolis

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., April 2.—A photograph of Seth Nichols, the sailor who, according to the police, has confessed that he murdered Dr. Helen Knabe in Indianapolis last October for $1500, and a copy of the alleged confession, were mailed to the authorities of that city early today. Nichols will be held here until the Indianapolis authorities have time to act.

Nichols, who is said to be a deserter from the United States cruiser Dixie, came here last week and was arrested on Saturday, charged with carrying a loaded revolver. The police say that yesterday he confessed to the murder of Dr. Knabe, telling them he would go insane if he did not get it off his mind.

Nichols has a sister living in Indianapolis. While in New York, according to the story he told the police, he met a stranger who offered him $1500 if he would commit the murder. He accepted the offer and went to Indianapolis, where he was joined by the man.

DOES WORK WITH KNIFE.
On the night of October 23 they went to Dr. Knabe's apartment. There Nichols said the unknown man handed him a knife with which he cut Dr. Knabe's throat while she was asleep. He fled from Indianapolis the next day.

The Knabe murder case was mysterious. Dr. Knabe, who was at one time state bacteriologist, had no enemies so far as was known. At first it was thought she committed suicide, but the coroner's report was that she "was murdered by some person or persons unknown."

RECALL PETITIONS TO BE CIRCULATED TOMORROW
Socialists to Receive Moral and Financial Support of Unions

The petition blanks for the recall of Mayor Frank K. Mott, Commissioner F. C. Turner and Commissioner William J. Bacon are being run out today by the Socialist party's printing office and will, according to the campaign committee, be on the streets the first thing tomorrow morning. It is expected the taking of names will begin at about 8 o'clock when members of the committee will start on their rounds.

"We have the blanks all set up already," said J. B. Osborne, head of the Socialist publicity committee. "As soon as we hear that the city was not going to do this work we had our printers begin and set about getting our own blanks. They will be on the street tomorrow."

The Central Labor Council last night resolved to aid the Socialists financially and morally, as pledged, in the recall matter. The union men have not, however, mentioned Bacon as one of those to be recalled, but it is understood that they will take no action to protect the official. The finance committee of the union labor body will recommend an appropriation to aid the work at the next meeting.

REPLIES TO TURNER.
In answer to the statement made by Commissioner F. C. Turner, setting forth his reasons for forbidding the I. W. W. to hold a meeting in the city hall, the following reply was made:

"The Socialist party has the unique distinction both in Europe and America of being the only political party who has a philosophy directly the opposite of the philosophy of anarch. The national convention of the Socialist party passed the following resolution:

A resolution relating to the matter of violence both in Europe and in the working class movement.

The present industrial depression has reduced a large number of men and women to acute distress through lack of employment and many of these, not knowing how to express their indignation and revolt, are easily misled by demagogues and police and agents of the capitalist class into acts of violence.

"We hold that any such violence on the part of the working people not only results in injuring their cause but in helping the ruling class to maintain their power.

"We therefore, urge all who desire the triumph of the working class to refrain from words inciting to class violence and to put all their energy into the economic fight waged by the unions and the political fight waged by the Socialist party.

"The Socialist party is pledged to protect the right of the working class to organize on the economic field in whatever form they desire. Economic organization of labor to have complete autonomy in the economic field and to be responsible for their program and tactics in their economic struggles.

"Likewise, the Socialist party claims complete autonomy in the political field and is likewise solely responsible for its program and tactics in the political field, which is for the capitalist class to hold and the working class to secure possession of political power.

"The Socialist party has never at any time and does not now, espouse the anti-political direct action agitation of the I. W. W. as it has been done in the past."

SICK HEADACHE, DIZZINESS, TORPID LIVER, CONSTIPATION -- CASCARETS

Sick headaches! Always trace them to lazy liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or a sick stomach. Poisonous matter, instead of being thrown out, is absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissues it causes congestion and that dull, awful throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets removes the cause by stimulating the liver, making the poison move on and out and purifying the blood. The effect is almost instantaneous. Ladies whose sensitive organisms are especially prone to sick headaches, need not suffer for they can be quickly cured by Cascarets. One taken tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box means a clear head and perfect health for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too. Children gladly take Cascarets because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

Series of Addresses Will Be Delivered in Berkeley by Noted Missionary.

The Work of Securing Names
Found by Supporters to Be Easy Task.

BERKELEY, April 2.—Rev. Henry C. Mable of Boston will begin a series of public lectures under the auspices of the Pacific Coast Baptist Theological Seminary at Berkeley on Tuesday evening of this week. Dr. Mable is a traveler, author and educator. After twenty years of service as a missionary secretary he is now engaged in lecturing before colleges and theological seminaries. The lectures are to be given at the First Baptist church, Allston way. The general theme is, "The Occident's Mission to the Orient."

The lectures will be as follows:
Tuesday, April 2, 8:00 p. m.—"God, or a True Theism."
Wednesday, April 3.—Conference of the Baptist Ministerial Union 10:45 a. m.; lecture by Dr. Mable, "Redemption, the Cure of Sin." Discussion: 2:30 p. m.; address, Rev. William Keeney Tower, "Educational Evangelism." Discussion: 8:30 p. m.; lecture by Dr. Mable, "Fidelity of the Divine Conduct of History." 8:00 p. m., "Character of the Evangelical Basis of Christianity."

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The non-hating petitions for the Taft ticket have been filed with Secretary of State Jordan. The work of securing the necessary names was performed with ease. As evidence of the avidity with which the public of all shades of opinion, have been signing the petition, it may be stated that Raymond Clifton of Grass Valley in less than a day got petition signers for the second district.

The Taft committee officers will now turn their attention to securing a full registration. It is expected that the total registration will be between 1,200,000 and 1,300,000.

DOES FANCIER DIES.
SAN JOSE, April 2.—C. J. A. Abbe, one of the best-known dog and chicken fanciers on the Pacific coast, died yesterday at his ranch at Oak Grove, near this city, after an extended illness. He was 77 years of age and had been a resident of this vicinity for the past four years. He devoted a considerable part of his time to collie and took many prizes with his dogs and chickens at different shows held up and down the coast. He is survived by a widow.

SPANISH WAR VETERAN VISITOR

Organizer Robert Elwood in Oakland, on Coast-to-Coast
Lecture Tour.

While on a lecture tour, extending from coast to coast, Robert Arthur Elwood, organizer of the Spanish War Veterans, and chaplain-in-chief of the organization, is in Oakland for a brief stay. He is being heard in the principal cities in a series of patriotic and religious lectures, and has been greeted by large audiences. On his travels he has been creating interest in the Spanish War veterans' organization, patterned after the Grand Army of the Republic, and stating that the society is fast assuming more importance among the soldiers.

"The organization is thriving more and more," said Elwood. "It is patterned after the Grand Army and probably will have a similar future. The provisions for the widows and orphans of the soldiers are the same as in the older organization, and they occupy the same place in public cultivation."

The next convention of the Spanish War Veterans will take place at Atlantic City from September 7 to September 14 of this year.

The New Jersey state legislature has appropriated $15,000 for the entertainment of the visiting soldiers from all parts of the country, and the convention will probably be one of the biggest ever held by a military organization of this kind.

THINKS WILSON HAS CHANCE.

"From opinions I have heard in my travels, I believe that there is a growing sentiment in favor of Oscar T. Taylor as the next commander-in-chief of the veterans, and I believe it probable that at the convention he will be elected to this office. I have also gathered political information during my travels. Taylor, Roosevelt and Wilson seem to be pretty evenly divided as regards possession of public favor in the different states. This state, I believe, favors Taylor, but at the same time Wilson may carry. He appears to me to have a good chance for the presidency."

There will be several officers chosen by the convention at Atlantic City and besides this, the veterans will gather from all parts of the country to discuss the days of the war and the different adventures they had. The convention will, besides the delegates, be attended by many visitors from the different posts, and a big parade in which the veterans will march will probably be a feature of the session.

CHAPLAIN CANDIDATE.

Elwood himself will be a candidate at the convention for re-election as chaplain-in-chief of the organization. He is expected, he will certainly be elected to this principal work is the advancement of the interests of the veterans' organization, which is the direct cause of the body, taken a keen interest in. His present trip is arousing great interest in the convention, and is the direct cause of a great number of delegates that have been sent where only a few were originally intended. His home is at "Crest Haven," Aberdeen, New Jersey, where he spends considerable time in writing and study.

The "Board Walk Church" at Atlantic City is sponsoring the convention. During the summer, when the fashions change, there is a gospel meeting on the famous board walk each Sunday. The church is a large, well-fitted each Sunday and seldom with the same congregation, the summer visitors being transitory. The "Board Walk Church" is one of the famous features of the beach.

Edward Terry Dies After Long Illness

Famous British Actor Succumbs to Attack of Neuritis at the Age of 68.

LONDON, April 2.—Edward Terry, the actor, who has been suffering some time from neuritis, died today at Barnes, Surrey, aged 68.

Edward O'Connor Terry was one of the most popular actors on the British stage on which he had appeared almost continuously for nearly half a century. He was a native of London and had traveled extensively in India, Australia, South Africa and America.

ALLEGED LAND SHARKS ARRESTED IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., April 2.—What the police allege to be a gang of land sharks operating with bogus deeds to a supposed home tract in Sonoma county, Cal., was broken up yesterday morning by the arrest of G. W. Leight, and M. Eskridge, alias Howard, after the alleged failure of the Exposition Development company, last week, had started the authorities in a search for the promoters.

The men would appear at a moving picture theater and pay the management $10 to distribute coupons with the theater's programs. The coupons were supposed to be worth to the person who drew them a share in the land. The men were charged with heavy abstracting fees and in return for the money they gave deeds, while Leight and Howard, the detective who made the arrest, claim to be worthless, but which are supposed to be from a San Francisco office, situated at 25 Montgomery street, where Eskridge is said to have been in charge. Both men are held in jail, being unable to secure bail.

ASK COURT TO RECALL FEDERAL SUBPOENA

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—Efforts will be made this week to have the Federal subpoena that is responsible for the presence here of W. H. Fohlman of Seattle declared void. Fohlman is business agent at Seattle for the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and he was summoned as a witness before the Federal grand jury. Fohlman has been here more than a month, and his friends charge Special Government Prosecutor Oscar Lawler has been employing "third degree" methods in order to compel the man to render evidence which they say he does not possess.

It is said the motion will be argued before Judge Olin Wellborn by Attorney Le Compte Davis.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, heart-burn, belching of gas, acid rising in throat after eating, stomach gnawing or burning, food, dizziness, spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver, indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Fierco's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. ## LARGE NIGHT CROWD ATTENDS SHRINERS' CIRCUS LION TRAINER, ATTACKED BY HUGE GRIZZLY, ESCAPES

Oakland Shriners Vie With Professionals in Clown Stunts; Aahmes Temple Patrol and Band Furnish Features

With the tents packed by a record-breaking crowd, the opening night of the Shriners' circus on the shores of Lake Merritt last night proved a splendid success. The feeling of excitement and interest, which infected a crowd gathered beneath the "white tops" when the odor of sawdust, wild animals and peanuts, peculiar to the circus, assailed the nostrils, made the occasion one to recall the days of half a generation back when everybody went to the show.

Everybody went to the circus last night. People who had not seen the inside of the big canvas auditorium since boyhood days turned out last night to attend the Shriners' event and to take part in a carnival of fun that bore the character of being almost a municipal event rather than the mere gathering of a fraternal order and a visit from the circus.

The Aahmes Temple of the Mystic Shrine, one of the three temples of the Shrine in California, has leased the big Al G. Barnes wild and trained animal show for four days in Oakland. The big campus on the shores of Lake Merritt, south of the Twelfth street dam, was secured for the event and to this last night came the crowds of Shriners and their friends from Oakland, San Francisco, Berkeley and Alameda.

LOCAL ENTERTAINERS PLEASE.

A clever performance was given by the Barnes show, but in the clowning and in the spirit and go to the occasion the local Shriners put above even the professional circus people at their own work of fun-making and frolic.

The circus is recognized as a thing of gaude and times show with a spectacular beauty all its own. The Shriners last night injected a touch of modern genuine beauty into the display by turning out in full uniform the Aahmes temple patrol and Aahmes Temple military band.

The Aahmes temple was on display yesterday at the two performances and in the parade for the first time in full uniform and without disparagement toward the lavishly costumed and brightly colored circus performers. It is safe to say that the Shriners' outshone the professionals. The patrol uniform is of vivid sky blue and bright red, and the combined into a graceful uniform that is at once symmetrical in its lines, beautiful and at the same time exceedingly practical.

The patrol drill team showed that it could march and maneuver cleverly, and won the applause of the crowd.

The patrol was accompanied by the Aahmes Temple band under Bandmaster T. M. Fidler. The band is similarly uniformed. Carried before the band, the patrol wore the two beautiful flags presented to the temple by the ladies of the temple about a week ago.

BEAR FURNISHES SURPRISE.

Tragedy was narrowly averted last night when a huge grizzly sprung an unprogrammed act by turning in a flash upon Herr Ricardo, the lion tamer, who was assisting Major Thornton in removing the bears from the steel arena at the conclusion of their turn. The bears had proved intractable during the act, and several attacks had to be fought. The animal was especially vicious and had to be disciplined again and again. Ricardo had been wounded in the hand by one of the animals at the afternoon performance, and came into the arena with his hand bandaged. He started to remove the big grizzly when the animal turned upon him with a sweeping blow and in a flash the trainer was lying prostrate with the snarling brute over him with bare hands.

Manager Barnes jumped for the arena, revolver in hand, and a number of attendants with sharp pointed steel rods attacked the animal. The bear was driven into the cage, giving Ricardo a chance to escape from his perilous position.

A lone flash in the uniform of the patrol, the bear's head and breast showed the marks of the bear's mauling, and indicated the narrowness of the escape. The crowd watched with breathless interest the fight with the animal.

Despite this mishap, Ricardo appeared in the ring with his troupe of performing animals and was the star attraction of the evening.

Another mishap was narrowly averted when the great white bear rode in the opening display by Illustrations Portate Frank Huger in leading the cavalcade approached a high hurdle on one side of the horse and the bear was trained to leap the hurdle, and made for it at a good speed. The place had not been arranged for anything of the kind, and Huger would have been swept from his saddle by overhanging ropes had he not controlled the circus horse with masterly skill.

While the Barnes circus was replete with thrilling acts, from the daring work of Miss Florine with her lions to the wrestling of Ed Schaeffer with the seven-foot Russian bear, the crowd gave most of its attention to the rivalry between the amateur Shriners clowns and the professional wrestlers of the arena. The act, which is the only one of its kind in the circus world of today, proved highly spectacular, as Madame Ricardo sang several pretty French airs while keeping her group of excited and angry animals in subjection by the power of will.

Captain Albert Stonewell with his performing seals won applause as did Captain Sharpe with his company of daring trick riders. Miss Florine was forced to whip her Persian leopards, African pumas and South African pumas into subjection during her act, as the animals became terribly excited. Her troupe also experienced difficulty with his troupe of African lions, but proved his mastery of the beasts of the jungle and put them through a daring series of acts.

BERKELEY'S NIGHT.

Berkeley Shriners will have the evening performance tomorrow as their special feature. The act, which is the only one of its kind in the circus world of today, proved highly spectacular, as Madame Ricardo sang several pretty French airs while keeping her group of excited and angry animals in subjection by the power of will.

Captain Albert Stonewell with his performing seals won applause as did Captain Sharpe with his company of daring trick riders. Miss Florine was forced to whip her Persian leopards, African pumas and South African pumas into subjection during her act, as the animals became terribly excited. Her troupe also experienced difficulty with his troupe of African lions, but proved his mastery of the beasts of the jungle and put them through a daring series of acts.

BURLESQUE ACTS.

A. M. Poulsen, leader of the Shriners clowns, delighted the crowds by burlesquing many of the thrilling acts in the show with his men. Major Thornton presented a group of trained bears, whose whimsical imitation of human actions pleased the crowd. But when the bears turned out to the occasion, they reached their height. J. R. Mackenzie also assisted in the burlesque.

For some unknown reason the animals were somewhat ugly last night and it required all the skill and daring of the trainers to force them to carry through their various acts. Madame Ricardo experienced the utmost difficulty in managing her group of Royal Bengal tigers.

REFUSES TO WORK OUT HIS SENTENCE

Defendant Objects to Working on Chain Gang to Support Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Charles N. Gould, who was sentenced by Judge Lawlor yesterday to one year in the county jail and to work on the road earning $1 a day, which was to be paid to his wife, has refused absolutely to do any labor.

Gould was arrested for failure to provide for his minor child, Kathryn, aged 3, was convicted and sentenced. It was stipulated that his wife, Hazel, could collect from the city a dollar a day which he was to earn making roads. When he was taken out this morning he refused to work and the matter was reported to the court. Judge Lawlor ordered that he be sent out with the chain gang.

TO GIVE TALK ON PROBABLE CANDIDATES

Upon the invitation of the members of the civic club of the Young Women's Christian Association Assemblyman William C. Clark will speak upon the subject, "The Probable Candidates for the Probable Candidates in Each Political Party." Thursday evening, in the association building, Fourteenth and Castro streets. It will be the second lecture in the course on "Civics."

Between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 Miss Isabel Smith, education secretary of the association will register the women. Several hundred members of the Young Women's Christian Association have already given their names to the deputy county clerk.

SECRETARY OF TRADES COUNCIL WINS RULING

STOCKTON, April 2.—In an opinion handed down by the San Joaquin county superior court, sitting en banc, the application of J. V. Beck of this city for a temporary injunction restraining Joseph Stewart, president of the local Building Trades Council, from exercising the duties of his office is denied.

The court holds, however, that Beck's complaint states a cause of action, and defendant's motion to dismiss it is denied. The matter will now come up for hearing on its merits.

Until the matter is finally determined the affairs of the council will remain in a state of demoralization. The treasurer has refused to pay out any money through a patrolman in company with a detective sergeant Arthur McQuade, head of the identification bureau, was reduced to the rank of corporal, with a loss of $2 per month salary, to make room for Cook.

HARRY COOK BECOMES DETECTIVE SERGEANT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Harry Cook, a nephew of President Cook of the police commissioners, was made a detective-sergeant this morning. Cook was on special duty in the upper office for about a month, having been formerly a patrolman in company with a detective sergeant Arthur McQuade, head of the identification bureau, was reduced to the rank of corporal, with a loss of $2 per month salary, to make room for Cook.

SWORN CONFESSION OF THIEF WANTED

Idaho Authorities Also Desire to Know Where Is the Crackman's Pal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The Idaho authorities wired to the local police this morning in an endeavor to obtain a sworn confession from Harvey Sprague, the repentant crackman who surrendered himself to the police yesterday. Sprague confessed to breaking into a general merchandise store and Sheriff James Mahaffey of Idaho is extremely anxious to get him to divulge the whereabouts of his pal, as well as to learn whether he will waive extradition. The telegram received this morning reads as follows: "San Francisco, California, December, 1910. Try awfully hard to get sworn statement of Sprague, alias Graves, at once. It will make it easier to get him. Very anxious to get sworn statement. Will he come without extradition? Hold and wire at once."

OFFICE SEEKS MAN, BUT ONLY IN CORAM

CORAM, April 2.—Though Coram is a city almost without population as a result of the shut-down of smelters, a city election will be held here next Monday, if enough citizens can be found to make up a ticket. Four City Trustees are to be elected. So far two men have been found who will take the office—Charles Barker and William Jones, the postmaster. It is estimated that about 400 votes will be cast if the polls are opened.

Mayor C. D. Morton, who still holds office, has been a resident of Anderson for over a year. City Trustee George O'Grady has not lived here for a year, but he, too, is within call in Anderson. As it is now, Coram has not a single City Trustee within its borders. The City Marshal tramps his beat as night watchman and draws his salary every month.

SKIN DISTRESS QUICKLY ENDED

Poisona Cures in the Modern Way. Easily, Rapidly, Permanently.

If suffering from any skin affliction it is important for you to know that on your drugstore shelf, in the form of a small box of Poisona, lies the concentrated healing power which will ease all physical distress and effect a complete and permanent cure. Poisona is obtained from The Owl Drug Co., and all druggists for 50 cents. With this ready means of relief so easily available there is really no reason why eczema, acne, tetter, hives, itch, pimples and like afflictions should be allowed to go unchecked and their discomforts unnecessarily endured. First application stops the itching, the skin rapidly heals and is restored to normal condition.

It may prove Poisona's merit. It is desired before buying by writing for free sample to the Emergency Laboratories, 92 West 25th street, New York City.

Easter Millinery

"This Hat just suits my face" is a remark frequently heard in our Millinery Salon. And it is true—the Hat that makes a woman look her best is here. Lots of other Hats here would not—but they would just suit other faces. Catch the point? Diversity of style treatment to suit types of faces.

Tomorrow--a Special $8.75 Group Priced at . . . $8.75

No better values or prettier styles can be seen anywhere for the money. Hardly a woman but would guess them to cost more. There are many different kinds of straw, many kinds of trimmings, all the new shapes and colorings. Be sure to see these.

Hats for Elderly Women

Now as in the past, only on a larger scale, we make a specialty of Bonnets, Toques and Turbans for elderly women. There is a note of newness to them this season that is most becoming. Both plain and dressy styles that lend charming dignity to the middle-aged face.

Mourning Millinery

Women who wear all black will like to see the new Hats for early Spring which we are showing.

Fine hems; tagal and other straws are shown, and with them the new net-and-crepe and net-and-silk Hats, with a distinctive touch of white. The hats are smart, always in good taste, and they possess the simplicity which mourning requires. (Second Floor)

Easter Dresses

$9.75 to $25.00

These are the prices most women have in mind for Dresses suitable for Easter wear, for dressy occasions and for homes and street wear, and our Easter showing of popular-priced Dresses is rich in style ideas and the rareness of the values.

There are very attractive models of chiffon taffeta, messalines, foulards, and serges, showing Paris influence in every line. In addition, handsome Lingerie and Summer Dresses, with white and all the lovely Spring colors represented.

There are the smart plain tailored Serge Dresses or the fancy styles with net ruffings, Gaby collars or a touch of contrasting color. The Silk Dresses are of the pretty changeable taffetas, silk messalines in plain and dark colors and fashionable foulards. The styles have been chosen with a thorough knowledge of all that is new in Spring Fashions, and our selections show a fine sense of refinement both in the lines of the garments and in the colors. ## NO MONEY TO PAY FOR U. S. RIFLE TEAM TRIP

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Congress having failed to appropriate $4000 necessary to defray the expenses of an American rifle team to the international match at Buenos Ayres next month, the officials of the war department have referred the promoters of the project to certain American corporations and individuals largely engaged in Argentine business. It is hoped that by private subscription the funds will be secured within the present week, the remaining available time.

It is said at the war department that the United States is in honor bound to participate in this rifle team in view of certain pledges already made to the Argentine government.

PRIMARIES TO BRING 1,200,000 TO THE POLLS

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—The registration in California for the May 14 Presidential primaries will bring about 1,200,000, according to estimates made out by J. M. Crome, statistician in Secretary of State's office, from figures thus far submitted by the county clerks of the State.

The figures submitted by the county officials are for the purpose of giving the State Secretary information about the number of biographic sketches of the Presidential candidates to be printed for distribution among the voters under the new primary law.

The registration, unprecedented in California, is caused by the large additions made by the women voters. The registration for the gubernatorial primaries in 1910 was between 550,000 and 600,000, approximately half of what will be registered for the May primaries.

The last day of registration will be April 14. The Secretary of State has been notified so far of registrations amounting to 650,000.

VOTE HEAVY IN THE KANSAS CITY ELECTION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 2.—Fair weather brought out a heavy early vote today in the election to choose an entire city ticket, including a mayor and 24 councilmen. A proposition to increase the city levy for the purpose of adding to the salaries of teachers also was placed before the voters.

Mayor J. H. Brown is candidate for re-election on a platform declaring for municipal ownership of gas and electric light plants. Henry L. Jost, Democratic candidate for mayor, an assistant prosecuting attorney of Jackson county.

Fostering Home Talent and Industry.

Not long ago City Commissioner Anderson, head of the Department of Public Works, announced that Oakland men would be given the preference in all contracts and employments at the disposal of the municipal government. This announcement came with peculiar grace from Mr. Anderson, for he had just succeeded in having J. J. Donovan, a recent arrival from New York, made city architect under conditions which were unbusiness-like (or too business-like) to say the least.

That Mr. Anderson should have gone so far abroad to find an architectural expert is surprising for more reasons than one. Mr. Donovan has taken a technical course in architecture at the Boston Institute of Technology, but he has never designed a building that has been erected. He has superintended the construction of some notable buildings designed by his employers, Palmer & Hornbostel of New York, but he has no reputation as an architect and has no experience as a designer of buildings.

The terms, on which Mr. Donovan was employed were so extraordinary in their latitude and liberality as to excite surprise and amazement.

Now we are getting a taste of Mr. Donovan's quality and of Commissioner Anderson's loyalty to home talent and home industry. Mr. Donovan has reserved the two big plums authorized by the recent bond issue, the auditorium and the Manual Training School, for himself and his New York employers, and has divided out the smaller school buildings among the architects of Oakland and San Francisco. The aggregate cost of the auditorium and the Manual Training School will be $1,000,000. Mr. Donovan's compensation on this work will be $60,000. The city will pay extra for all expert mechanical service, such as heating, lighting, steel work engineering and sanitary plans. Here is how the other jobs have been allotted:

John Galen Howard, professor of architecture and head of the department in the University of California; Emerson School, to cost $160,000.

Louis Christian Mullgardt, San Francisco, Durant School, to cost $160,000.

Lewis Hobart, San Francisco, Washington School addition, to cost $100,000, and probably Lockwood School, to cost $40,000.

Walter J. Mathews, Oakland; Dewey School, to cost $100,000.

Walter D. Reid, Oakland; College Avenue School, to cost $100,000.

Louis Stone, Oakland architect; Thirteenth Avenue School, to cost $85,000, and addition to Fremont High, to cost $80,000.

Fred Voorhees, Oakland; Fifty-fourth and Market Street School, to cost $65,000, and Park and Division Streets School, to cost $75,000.

William Dickie, Oakland; addition to Longfellow School, to cost $100,000.

Sydney B. Newsom, Oakland; Perry Street School, to cost $85,000.

Out of the gross compensation of six per cent allowed Mr. Donovan for drawing the plans and supervising the work, Mr. Donovan reserves two-fifths for himself and pays the other three-fifths to the architects who actually make the designs and draft the plans of the buildings. As before stated, the city pays extra for the mechanical engineering plans. Under this arrangement Mr. Donovan will expect his own plans (or those of his New York employers), draw the contract specifications, supervise the construction and pass upon the sufficiency of the work. The local architects to whom he has thrown building scraps, will be virtually head draftsmen to a tyro in the profession and who really employs them by private contract to do public work.

Thus is home industry and home talent fostered and encouraged. This is civic pride and civic loyalty developed.

Having recalled his own decision not to be a candidate for a third term, Colonel Roosevelt cannot see why the decision of a judge on a constitutional question should not be recalled. The Colonel has an idea that his ipse dixit is of greater importance than the constitution.

Chapters From the History of a Father.

George C. Pardee is at great pains to deny that Abe Ruef helped give him the nomination in 1902, but he does not undertake to say that he did not endeavor in a personal interview with Abe Ruef at Santa Cruz to get the support of the Ruef-Schmitz delegation in 1906. On that point he is curiously silent. He categorically denies getting Ruef's support in 1902, but he does not deny that he tried to get it in 1906.

Again, Dr. Pardee does not specifically deny that he asked William F. Herrin for the support of the Southern Pacific in 1906. He rails at Herrin and calls the editorial managers of THE TRIBUNE a variety of hard names, but he does not meet the issue. Instead of saying he did not solicit the support of Herrin and the railroad, he says Herrin is directing the editorial policy of this paper—a statement he knows to be utterly devoid of truth if he knows anything of the matter at all. Mr. Herrin has as much to do with directing the policy of THE TRIBUNE as has Dr. Pardee, which is nothing at all.

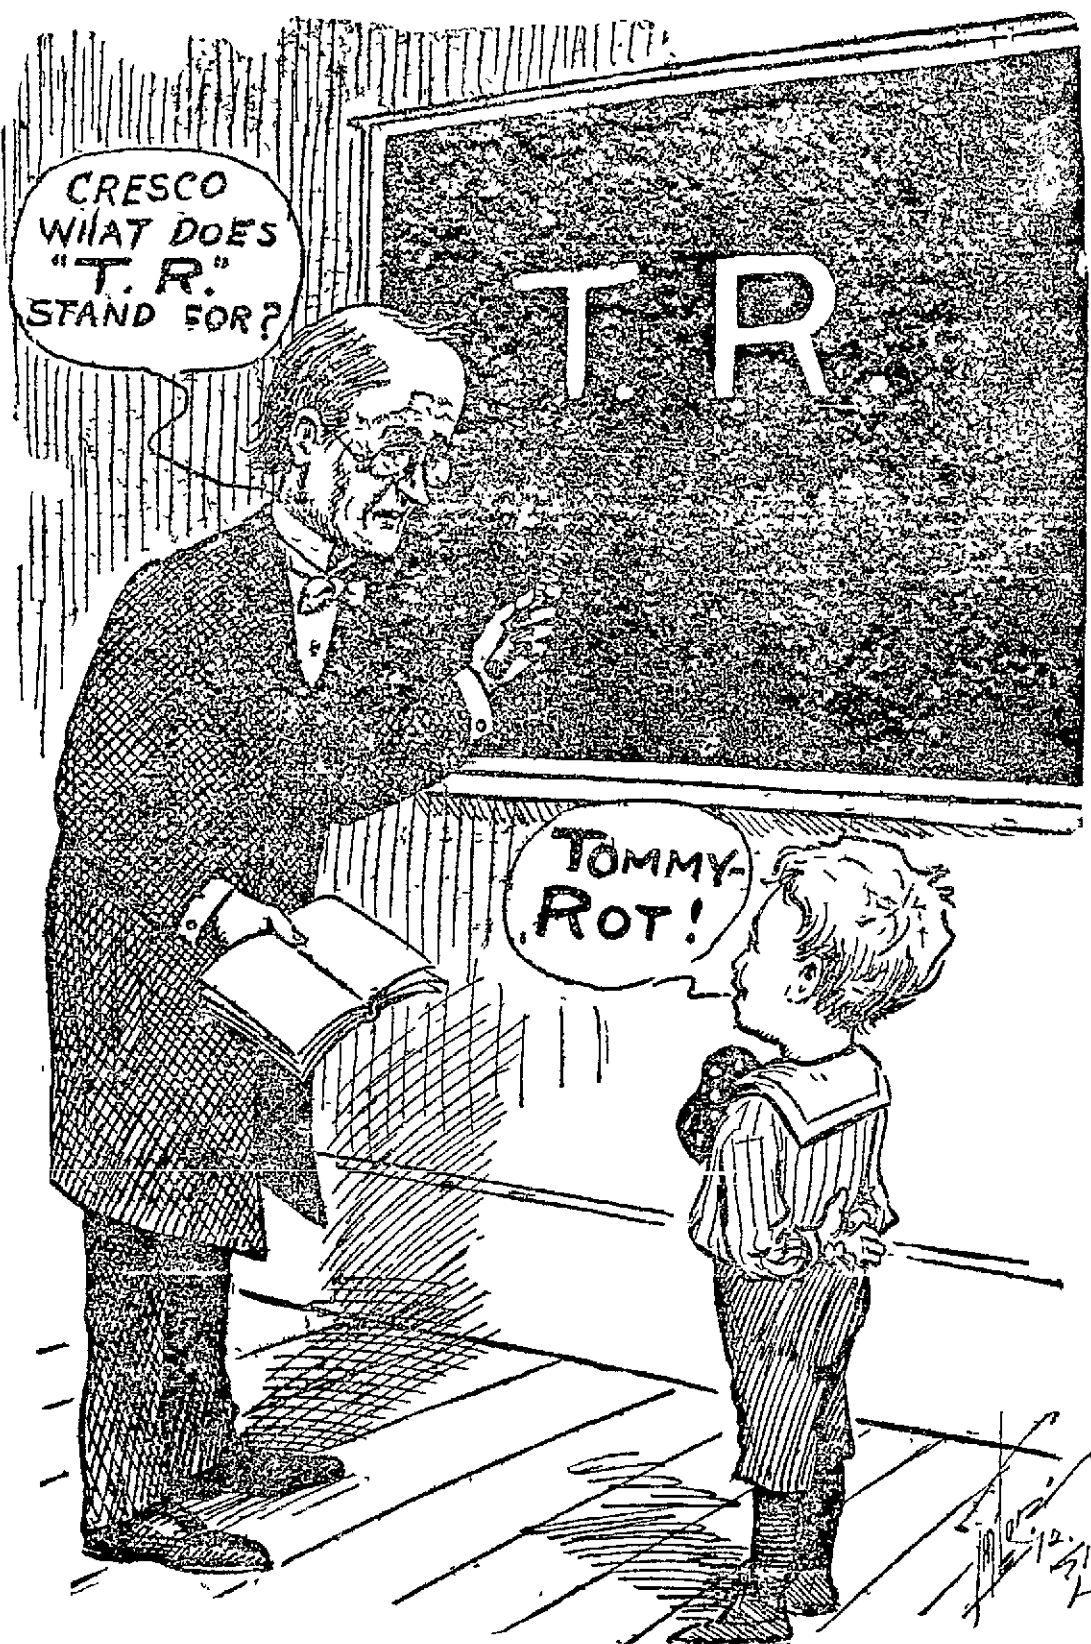

But that is not the point. Did Pardee ask Herrin for the railroad's support? That is the issue. Why is the doctor so reluctant to meet it? Calling other people liars and journalistic pirates does not meet it.

Pardee flounders around wrathfully in an attempt to break the force of the statement that his managers traded off Samuel G. Hilborn in 1898, but he does not come to the scratch with a square denial. That Hilborn was traded off for Pardee is quite certain, but we are not sure that Pardee had a personal hand in the deal. It has been a periodical subject of discussion in local political circles ever since, and William R. Davis, who was sacrificed in the trade that defeated Hilborn, is still of the opinion that he was unfairly treated.

Pardee's statement that Colonel Dan Burns drew enough votes away from Gage to give him (Pardee) the nomination for Governor in 1902 deserves attention because it is untrue in the first place and because, in the second, it opens up for inspection the political relations then existing between Pardee and the magnates of the California Jockey Club. Herrin gave the order to switch from Gage to Pardee, but it is equally true that Colonel Dan Burns and Thomas H. Williams were instrumental in getting the railroad to take up Pardee. They were undoubtedly active in the doctor's campaign. But why?

Examine Pardee's gubernatorial record and see if any effort was made by him during his term of office to suppress race track gambling. Dr. Pardee did not tread on the toes of his race track friends any more than he made war on the Southern Pacific Railroad. It was not till after he failed of re-nomination in 1906 that he turned on Herrin and the railroad and his newspaper began to demand the suppression of the race track. He remained friends with Colonel Burns and Mr. Williams during the entire time he sat in the executive chair.

WHAT HE STANDS FOR

—LOS ANGELES TIMES

Will Dr. Pardee kindly tell the public without equivocation what earned him the friendship of Burns and Williams and why that friendship persisted during his term of office. His trick of abusing THE TRIBUNE and its editors will not avail to obscure this passage in his political career. During his entire term as Governor the race track ran without interruption, and Dr. Pardee says it was Colonel Burns who gave him the nomination in 1902. See the Enquirer of Saturday, March 30th. Did anybody ever hear of Colonel Burns in connection with the race track?

Dr. Pardee denies that he got his nomination from the Southern Pacific, but admits that he got it from the race track magnate. The truth is, he had the support of both the Southern Pacific and the race track. The only reason why Ruef did not line up with the combination was that he was not promised the patronage he demanded. His votes were not needed.

In theory the direct primary is beautiful, but so far as the selection of delegates to national conventions is concerned, it is a farce. The delegates are really selected by a caucus having no warrant of authority from the people, and they can abandon the candidate in whose name they were elected any moment they choose. Roosevelt's managers are already claiming that the delegates elected for La Follette and Cummins will come to the Colonel. So they do not expect delegates elected at a primary to stay put.

Battle Bob has been posted for membership in the Ananias Club because he denies that he is a nervous wreck. Also he has proved himself false to the progressive cause by refusing to give way to Roosevelt. The Colonel was the original discoverer of progress—the Doctor Cook of reform.

LEADERS VERSUS PRINCIPLES

The Hon. Chester H. Rowell, of Fresno, comes to the bat with a contribution to political literature that California should not miss. In California Outlook, under the title "Why Roosevelt and Not La Follette," he explains what California progressivism means and has meant, thus: "The progressive movement in California is not a personal one. So far as it is embodied in a personal leader, that leader is Governor Johnson. His national leader is and always has been Theodore Roosevelt."

It is difficult to get this on a straight, Chief. The movement is not a personal one; hence, it must be a movement of principle. Being a movement that is not personal, it has a state leader in Governor Johnson and always has had Mr. Roosevelt for its national leader.

We venture to say that this definition of California progressivism is as near as "leaders" of the Rowell-Lisener-Fair stripe ever have got or ever will get. They imagine that the last gubernatorial primaries and election were carried off, for and by Hiram Johnson as a state leader under Roosevelt as national leader simply because Johnson was Johnson and Roosevelt was Roosevelt, both leaders.

Leaders of what? Why just lead a "Principles of a progressive movement" rights wrongs ideas desires of the people—why concern the movement? Weren't leaders enough?

But the movement not being, in truth, a personal one, it did have principles, and

SWINGING BIG STICK

The result of the Colonel's efforts to be recalled by the voice of the people have not been all that fond fancy painted, and evidently indignation and perturbation are holding possession of the towering dome in which Senator Dixon conceals his massive brain machinery. The Senator has begun to smoke like a smoldering Vesuvius and upon occasions may be seen and heard in eruption. The latest agitation of the Montana Senator's interior was brought about by a very simple thing—nothing more than a harmless amusing postcard, an unpretentious work of art, in which the recall of judicial decisions was made the target of the cartoonist's wit. The card was circulated by the Ohio Manufacturers' Association, the organization which instigated the prosecution of the corrupt members of the Ohio Legislature. There seems to have been no purpose to reflect upon Roosevelt or any other particular candidate, but Senator Dixon became excited, agitated and indignant. So he sat him down and wrote a letter to the Ohio manufacturers, covertly threatening that the Roosevelt men would take revenge when the tariffs came up for consideration by Congress. It would be hard to believe that the manager of a Presidential candidate's campaign could be such a fool; but Senator Dixon has written himself down an ass with his own proper hand, and far be it from us to alter his autobiography—Stockton Mail.

STEGE BOOSTERS MAKE CAMPAIGN

100 Strong They Storm the County Citadel for Purpose of Incorporation.

STEAGE, April 2.—Citizens and boosters to the number of about 100 took an early train for Martinez yesterday and stayed there all day, appearing before the board of supervisors in a concerted effort to convince them that they should call an election so the people of the Steage school district and the residents of the Rust and Pullman sections could have an opportunity to decide for or against the proposed incorporation of the new town of Pullman. The proposed municipality is to follow the Steage school district boundaries, taking the territory from Alameda county line to the city limits of Richmond.

Attorney J. E. Rogers opened the argument for those wishing to incorporate. He was followed by Judge W. F. Huber and others, but they encountered a contrary petition of 200 signatures, equal in number to the petition for incorporation, praying that no such election be called.

They were opposed by a number of prominent men representing large property interests, who objected strenuously to being taken in by the proposed new town, and stated their reasons why. These are the Pullman car company, employing nearly 800 people, the John Nichol interests and a number of real men having high class resident traits whose building interests are as high as $500. These gentlemen stated that they intended making over a million dollars worth of improvements in the next two or three years and preferred to be under the general county government to being made answerable to the trustees of a village which they claimed would have nothing in common with their interests. The incorporation boosters were insistent and were backed with the words "Incorporation or Bust." The supervisors took the matter under advisement.

BALLOT IS TAKEN ON LOCAL OPTION

Straw Vote Stands 80 to 4 in Favor of Regulating Saloons.

NILES, April 2.—In a straw ballot taken in the First Supervisorial district of Alameda county it was decided that the voters are in favor of regulated saloon traffic in Washington, Murray and Pleasanton townships instead of the "dry" condition proposed by the adherents of local option. The ballot was taken by the board of supervisors. In the straw ballot held last week the vote stood 80 to 4.

The vote on the question was obtained by requesting one representative of each business house to place the mark "X" either after the word "For regulated saloons" or after "For no saloons." Early in the canvass it became apparent that almost every business house visited was strictly in favor of "regulated traffic."

FRESNO STOCKMAN HANGS HIMSELF

Found Dangling in Closet at a Sanatorium in Livermore.

LIVERMORE, April 2.—John Gjersdal, a stockman of Fresno, committed suicide here yesterday by hanging himself with a leather strap hung to a clothes peg in a closet at the Livermore sanatorium. His body was found several hours later by an attendant. The dead man was receiving treatment for mild insanity and was considered harmless.

Gjersdal was a native of Norway, 39 years of age, and is survived by a wife and infant child. From his native land he came to Minnesota several years ago, where he resided until coming to Fresno about a year ago. Three weeks ago he came to the sanatorium to be under the care of a physician. His form of mania was harmless and he was allowed the freedom of the place.

400 RICHMONDITES TO ATTEND BIG TRACK MEET

RICHMOND, April 2.—The students composing the track team of the Richmond high school have been certified by Professor B. X. Tucker to the secretary of the Contra Costa Athletic league for the track meet to be held at Concord on April 12. The track team here is making fine progress in training, as shown Saturday last at East Shore park when a number of athletic records of this county were broken.

The Richmond high special train over the Southern Pacific will leave here at 10:30 a. m. After short stops in the motor of the county the pupils will go in a body to the meet. It is estimated that fully 400 will attend from this city.

TWO MINDS IN ONE.

Talk about your psychological marvels! I saw one a few weeks ago that was brand new to me.

I was invited by the principal of a well-known commercial school to see a young man from the Remington Typewriter office give a demonstration on the Visible Model to Remington.

"A demonstration on the typewriter? What is new in that?" I wondered. "I can see scores of such demonstrations every day in any business office."

Nevertheless, I had a feeling that it must be something out of the ordinary, so I went.

I watched the young man for some minutes copying from manuscript. Of course, he was a very fast operator and a very accurate operator, and all that. He fairly made his Remington hum. "But what of it?" I thought. "The woods are full of fast and accurate operators."

Presently the school principal took me up and introduced me to the young man. He acknowledged my salutation but continued his writing.

I asked him a few questions about himself and his work. He answered them, still writing.

Then it dawned upon me that here indeed was something out of the ordinary.

All the while that this young man was talking to me, he never ceased to copy from his manuscript. He was doing what psychologists have gravely told us is impossible. He was performing two separate mental operations at one and the same time.

But this was not all. It was only the beginning.

"Do you speak German?" asked our host.

I confessed my ignorance of that language. But a German happened to be present, and he took up the conversation. The operator answered him—in German; while he still continued to write—in English.

Then a man was found in the audience who spoke French, and the same test was repeated in that language, for the operator was not only a proficient typist but also an accomplished linguist.

There was no stumping that operator in his remarkable feat of two simultaneous mental operations. He could converse fluently in French or German while at the same time copying from English manuscript, and he showed us later that he could just as easily reverse the process. It was all new to me and to everyone present—as new as it was extraordinary.

"But of what practical use is it?" I thought on my way home.

Then my mind began to stray back over the earlier days of the writing machine. I remembered another marvel of 20 years ago, when Frank McGurran, the pioneer "touch" operator, the first typist who ever operated the machine without looking at the keys, was giving his exhibitions on the Remington Typewriter in all the cities of North America.

I remembered how they called McGurran a freak, a sort of magician, who did what no other operator could ever do. Today the whole business world knows that all the best operators are "touch" operators.

The wonder of yesterday is always the commonplace of to-day.

It is not the "two in one" stunts that this young man does that matter in themselves. It is the fact that he is able to do them, for this fact proves what perfect mechanical proficiency an operator may attain with practice.

The lesson this latest marvel teaches is that the typist becomes proficient by becoming mechanical—a human automaton. And only when typing becomes as mechanical and unconscious as walking, is the typist truly a master of his craft.

Twenty years ago the Remington Typewriter Company brought out Frank McGurran as an example to the operators of his day. Now they have brought out this new marvel as an example to the operators of the present.

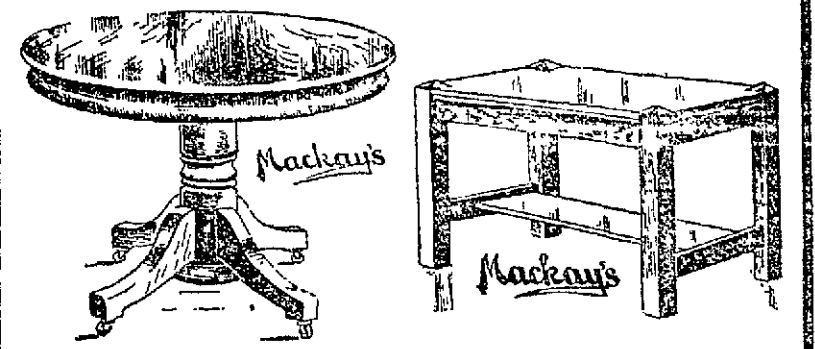

Thus the Remington Typewriter fulfills its rôle as the perpetual pioneer, not only in the development of the machine itself, but in every development of its skilled operator.

LIVELY RACE FOR POLITICAL JOBS

Five Candidates Out for Three Places on Hayward Trustees.

HAYWARD, April 2.—A lively contest is expected at the coming municipal election on April 8 when three of five candidates for a seat on the board of trustees, which manages the city's town clerk, will be chosen. It is conceded to be one of the most interesting political situations ever faced by the town, the aspirants to office being prominent and popular men.

Three of the candidates for a seat on the board are incumbents whose terms expire April 12. They are Mayor Charles Heyer, Martin Welsh and S. J. Sommers. The three officials will be opposed by Captain J. J. Corrie, a real estate dealer, and former candidate for office, and J. D. Armstrong, a real estate dealer.

The closest fight, it is believed, will center around the candidacy of Corrie, who is running for office. J. Elmer Welsh, secretary of the Hayward chapter of Commerce and Industry, and a real estate dealer, and P. W. Moody, a hardware merchant, are in the race with him.

GIRL VANISHES SECOND TIME

16-Year-Old Amelia Perotti Alarms Parents by Again Disappearing.

SAN LEANDRO, April 2.—Miss Amelia Perotti, who left home sometime after an altercation with her father, C. B. Perotti, a wealthy land owner living in Eastbrook street, is again reported missing by a distracted parent. The authorities have been appealed to and the Oakland and San Francisco police will be asked to take up the search for the girl, who is believed to have father to be under the hypnotic influence of designing persons.

When she last left home, after several days absence, she was wearing a dark dress and a hat. She was last seen in the city of San Francisco, where she was located by the authorities. According to her story she is subjected to unnecessary discipline at home and ran away for that reason.

Miss Perotti is 16 years old, dark and well developed for her years. The family is prominent in this section. Mrs. Perotti has been in poor health for several weeks, is prostrated by the second disappearance of her daughter.

NOTHING SMALL ABOUT THIS THIEF

Enjoyed Luxurious Shave and Took Goods Sufficient to Start a Store.

CINCINNATI, April 2.—After securing several suits of clothes from the tailor shop of Philip Mann, 403 West Court street, a burglar then kicked in the rear door of Joseph Block's men's furnishing store, Cor. Court and Central, as usual, and fitted himself out with clean linen and left his old clothes behind him.

A dirty collar with the laundry mark missing was left in Block's store.

The stylish burglar supplied himself with one and a half dozen pairs of gloves, half a dozen collars, also 14, ten pairs of trousers, a fancy vest and two overcoats. He also helped himself to fifty pennies from Block's cash drawer.

In his haste he left 50 worth of merchandise he had packed in Block's store.

Edward Wheaton, barber, 309 Central avenue, told the police at the same time the reports of the first two robberies were being made that a thief had entered his shop, shaved, took a good head wash and left with two razors. The police believe the same man committed all three robberies.

PAPERS SEIZED BY THE POLICE

Copies of S. F. Bulletin Defending I. W. W. Are Confiscated.

SAN DIEGO, April 2.—Acting under advice from legal counsel, it is claimed, the police have confiscated numerous copies of the San Francisco Bulletin of March 30 which contained a full page article headed "Gag Law on Free Speech in San Diego," purporting to give an account of the free speech fight waged by the Industrial Workers of the World in this city.

Fifteen men were arrested late yesterday while engaged in selling the papers. Fourteen of them were later released, but the papers, which were taken away from them at the jail, were retained. The men arrested gave their names as A. C. Meyer, James Manning, Charles Cunningham, G. Walker, William Bely, Peter Paulsen, Hans Petersen, G. C. Baker, W. Pruett, L. Kern, Jacob Schwartz, John Scholt, S. E. Jennings and Giovanni Tuccore.

G. Walker, who says he is an English citizen, was held by the police for the immigration authorities, who will, it is claimed order him deported to his native land.

In seizing the papers, Chief of Police Keno Wilson said that the Bulletin had been placed in the same category with two other publications whose public sale has been forbidden, both of these being organs of the I. W. W., one published at Newcastle, Pa., and the other at Seattle. He says all contain libelous attacks upon the city government and the police department and are of such a nature as to cause persons unfamiliar with the situation to refrain from coming here.

RABIES VICTIM DIES.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—An inquest was held this afternoon in the case of Frank Anders, the only victim of a dog bite to succumb since rabies took hold here. One of the features of the offering is the "Reindeer Song," wherein the girls are clad in rubber boots, raincoats and hat, while a real rainbow storm is produced with the lighting and rainbow following. The piece boasts of four different scenes, any one of which might be construed as the ultimate in stage mechanics.

Furnishing some snappy dialogue, clever dances and several songs is the offering carved in palatable form by Merritt and Douglas, two natty

W. BARNES AGAIN HEADS COMMITTEE

NEW YORK, April 2.—William Barnes, Jr., of Albany today was re-elected chairman of the newly elected Republican State Committee which met here for organization as prescribed by the new primary law. The other officers also were re-elected.

The committee ratified the selection of Nicholas Murray Butler, as temporary chairman of the state convention. It was learned that Mr. Butler also would be elected permanent chairman. A resolution declaring that no candidate for public office should be endorsed by the state committee was adopted.

EFFECT ESCAPE FROM COURTROOM

ST. LOUIS, April 2.—Five men, one a confessed murderer, and four charged with burglary and robberies, escaped from Judge Wilson A. Taylor's courtroom today while court was in session on the third floor of the municipal courts building. They were in a cage adjoining the courtroom, and crawled through a small door in the rear to the window sill, walked a narrow ledge to another window twenty feet away, re-entered the building and escaped.

As the girls appear in one of the four big scenes in the Bell Theater Big Show.

"The Dancing Girls," one of Joe Maxwell's very latest vaudeville creations, have been acclaimed a success at the Bell this week. There are seven people in the cast, all of whom are girls, who can both sing and dance. Dainty Julia, Curtis looks after the leads. The piece abounds in popular songs and dances with the point ballet and the ensemble, so popular in the larger musical comedies. One of the features of the offering is the "Reindeer Song," wherein the girls are clad in rubber boots, raincoats and hat, while a real rainbow storm is produced with the lighting and rainbow following. The piece boasts of four different scenes, any one of which might be construed as the ultimate in stage mechanics.

Furnishing some snappy dialogue, clever dances and several songs is the offering carved in palatable form by Merritt and Douglas, two natty

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Governor Johnson today issued a proclamation declaring Thursday, the 18th of this month, anniversary of the disaster of 1906, to be a "fire-prevention day." For the State of California, the proclamation reads, "The State is urged to take such action as the State are ailed to get out and remove the causes for fires and thus assist in saving many millions of dollars to the State from the total destruction. The proclamation is as follows:

"It is a matter of common knowledge that during each year an enormous amount of property is destroyed by fire with a consequent loss of millions of dollars. In many instances this great fire waste is occasioned by carelessness, the lack of cleanliness or the accumulation of trash which is piled up in alleys and unfrequented streets.

"In many States of the Union a day in each year is set apart by the chief executive officer of the State for the purpose

SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 2—The trials of Louise Madeline Cone, widow of the late Douglas E. Cone, charged with the murder of her husband, began today in the Superior court of California, and the owner of the famous Rancho del Barro dog in Tehama county near Red Bluff, gave a demonstration of how the woman was treated by the victim's oppressive circumstances.

Mrs. Cone's troubles of the last seven years have come to a head in the suit for $25,000 damages brought by Alvin Karpis, a San Francisco resident.

According to Sullivan, Sullivan & Roche, San Francisco attorneys, the suit was filed by the defendant's law suit, which lasted four months, and in which the judgment against her was only $10,000 less than the amount sued for.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

LUCY GREENLEAF
WEDS MAN SHE
FLED WITHElopers Marry in South After a Sensational Flight From Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—Mrs. Robert E. Ross is at home at the residence of Mrs. Ross' mother, Mrs. Mary Banning, yesterday. Their marriage was celebrated yesterday at Riverside, where they went with two friends of Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Ella Williams and Mrs. Harriet MacIntosh.

It was a year and a half ago when the city was stirred and the gossip set to working overtime by the elopement of Mrs. Lucy Greenleaf and Ross. There followed a journey into Mexico, a stay at the City of Mexico, a quick cross-country dash to Salina Cruz, where a steamer was boarded to Japan and for a year the elopers led a merry life.

Then came a return to Vancouver, where the two have since lived. Recently Greenleaf began to feel ill, but fate became the judge and when Greenleaf's death occurred in Philadelphia a short time ago the two found the path to the altar cleared of obstacles—and followed it.

The elopers, Mrs. Banning brought Mrs. Ross back to Los Angeles where she has been at her mother's bedside for a week or more.

"It has always been our intention to be married if the opportunity came," said Mrs. Ross. "I expected after I left here that Mr. Greenleaf would take the necessary steps to secure a divorce and he did so. His death made an end to the delay and today we were married at Riverside."

Bar "Boston Dip"

MADISON, Wis., April 2.—The "Boston Dip" has been barred from Lathrop house, a new clubhouse for Wisconsin co-eds, by official chaperones. At some student dances fully half the participants danced the "dip," it is said.

Drops Suit

NEW YORK, April 2.—The contest which Maybelle Ames Thompson has waged for nearly two years to establish her dower right in the $1,600,000 estate of her husband, the late Robert E. Thompson, a paper manufacturer, was settled through an agreement with the heirs signed last night. It was said in behalf of Mrs. Thompson that she would gain more under the agreement than by continuing the suit.

Talks Between Acts

CHICAGO, April 2.—Miss Jane Addams, head resident of Hull House, addressed an audience on equal suffrage between acts at a downtown theater last night. A poll of the audience showed 535 of the 978 who voted were favoring to giving women the ballot, and 278 against it. Most of the women present did not vote.

Took the Dare

RED BLUFF, April 2.—The sudden marriage Saturday of Attorney J. T. Matlock and Miss V. Bedford had a sequel Sunday night in the marriage just as suddenly of John P. Tait and Miss Constance Evelyn Risse.

When Matlock met his chum, Tait, he jokingly taunted Tait, telling him he could not follow the example he had set by his marriage of the evening before. Tait apparently determined then and there to make a try, for later in the day he motored down to Los Molinos, where his bride, Miss Risse, was waiting for him.

Will Retain Farm

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., April 2.—Under decision of Supreme Court Justice McLean, the county clerk's office at White Plains yesterday, Nikol Greely Smith and Ida Greely Smith, left in their suit to have the deeds of the historic Greely farm at Cloppanqua, N. Y., returned to the late Mrs. Greely.

The plaintiffs are the two children of the late Ida L. Greely Smith, also a daughter of Greely. Justice McLean dismissed the action pending on the condition of the defendants that the statute of limitation bars the suit.

Fails to Support

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Charged with failing to assist his three brothers in the support of his mother, who is 89 years old, Jacob Herman has been summoned to appear before Justice Clarkson and show cause why he should not be punished under the new law which requires adult children to provide for their parents.

The four sons, Jacob, Peter, Martin and Tony Herman, were arrested on complaint of their mother last fall for failing to provide for her. They escaped prosecution by agreeing to pay $5 a month each toward her support. This agreement has been kept. It is charged, by all the sons but Jacob.

Two Affinities

FRESNO, April 2.—Upon the ground that his wife had twice eloped and had failed to return the last time, Raymond J. Butler, a young Colingia oil man, was granted a divorce from Ella Quig Butler by Superior Judge Church.

Butler testified that his wife during February of 1910, had eloped to Hanford with another man, but returned at his solicitation, only to elope a year later with still another affinity. Butler said this last time his wife had failed to even communicate with him.

PINK-EYE EPIDEMIC

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., April 2.—Horses valued at nearly $25,000 have died here of pink-eye in the last week. The malady started six weeks ago in a lumber camp where many horses are used in logging. Horses leaving the camp carried the disease to other places, and it is now epidemic throughout this section.

MISTAKEN SYMPATHY

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1912, Lillian Russell.)

THE reckless habit people have of asking how one feels carries with it a thought or suggestion that one does not feel well.

Why shouldn't every one feel well? And if some are lawbreakers enough to declare it at they do not feel well, let them break the laws of health themselves without giving others the danger thought to guide them.

The remark, "How well you look," is like the stimulation of fresh air to a despondent person. The mistaken sympathy of "O, my, but you look ill and tired," puts the thought of fatigue or even worse impress on the mind of the one spoken to, whereas he may never have given it a thought.

In the present day of intelligent thinking and brain exercise people are negligent of reasoning who speak of illness, where it is not desperately apparent. In that case the suggestion of a cure, or at least cheerful encouragement, is the duty of the thinking man or woman. There is nothing that will give life and beauty a sick person more than telling him that he looks fine. And it's a half cure at least when that fear of the loss of his looks leaves his heart.

All people always consult the mirror, seldom to find how well they look, but generally to see how much worse they look each day. Habit has made ill people look first for the trouble. If it is not apparent then they simply accept the improvement as temporary.

When people are ill they should not look in a mirror until they are convinced that they are on the mend. For then the hopeful thought of health inspires a hopeful expression and that expression is reflected in the mirror and simply corroborates their thought.

A wise woman wrote, "Life is a mirror, smile at it," a motto that should be hanging in every woman's room, for it's true.

The person who sympathetically and winningly says to a person, "My, but you look tired, dear, aren't you well?" commits a crime almost as serious as putting an obstruction in his way to stumble over. The danger of disfiguring the beauty of countenance is equal in either case.

Now, then, what shall we say? Why, say, "You are looking splendidly, of course you feel as well as you look." If you like a person you are not telling a lie by saying that, even if he does not look well, for you should see only his best. And if his best is not apparent make yourself his healer by bringing that best out.

Watch his expression when you have said the nice thing to him and you will be paid for your little deception in a few seconds and you will have been the means of helping instead of depressing that person.

A true woman or man can help the whole world by cheerful expression. Work is lighter if thoughts are cheerful.

All people are refreshed by cheerful visitors, hopeful encouragement stimulates and beautifies.

Don't be the cause of a moment's depression or discouragement to any one. We all need hope; it's the inspiration of the whole world, in every sense of its meaning.

Remember: Hope is the most powerful cure in the world.

gled to send you a formula for developing the bust.

C. G. H.—Perhaps the enlargement on your neck is a goiter. I would advise you to consult your physician about it before it gets any larger.

A. H. L.—Thank you for your kind words of appreciation. I am delighted to hear that you enjoy my articles. Cocoa is good to drink daily if you wish to gain in weight. It is not injurious to the complexion. Boracic acid is excellent for the eyes. Bathe the eyes daily with boracic acid solution and they will become brighter and stronger. Before washing your face with soap cleanse it with a good cold cream, allowing it to remain on for about ten minutes, then take it off with a soft piece of cloth. I would not advise you to use either coconut oil or almond oil on your face unless you wish a growth of superfluous hair. The pure oils are too heavy. The cold cream will do just as well and will not cause a growth of hair, for it contains only vegetable fat such as wax. I shall be glad to send you the formula for the cold cream if you will send me an addressed, stamped envelope.

WOMAN CONFESSES THIRTY-FIVE MURDERS

CULT LEADER TWEITMOE TELLS OF CRIMES

Half Blood Negress Declares She Killed 17 With Own Hands.

Rites of "Human Sacrifice" Practised in Southwest Louisiana.

LAFAYETTE, La., April 2.—Clementine Barnabet, a half-blood negress, told a story here today that the police authorities say they accept as clearing the mystery of the killing of twenty negroes in Southwest Louisiana, and which it is said gave clues that will fix the guilt for fifteen other right assassinations of blacks in Louisiana and Texas.

From Clementine's story it appears she led a mysterious negro cult, the members of which performed the rites of "human sacrifice."

The negress declared she killed seventeen of the victims with her own hands. The police declare Clementine told her story of wholesale slaughter with no apparent feeling that the taking of human life was a crime. Without reservation she told her part in the thirty-five assassinations, but declined to reveal the names of members of the mysterious cult that helped her.

COMMITTED IN YEAR. The murders were all committed within a year. As one series of killings was added to another in different towns of Southwest Louisiana and Southeast Texas the authorities concluded one mind directed all. The negress confessed today she was the directing head of the cult that is known as the "Church of the Sacrifice," which has for its feature creed the belief that by life sacrifice alone may a person gain immortality.

Before engaging in any of these crimes Clementine armed herself with a "voodoo," which she got from a preacher and which she and other members of her band were assured would protect them from the law. While the exact reason for the murders is not explained to the satisfaction of the authorities it is believed Clementine and her companions were degenerates and that their weakened brains evidently were affected by the exhortations they had heard in the "Church of the Sacrifice." The grand jury it is said will indict the woman immediately.

FAMILIES KILLED OFF. Most of the thirty-five assassinations were accomplished in the killing of three and four members at one time. In every instance the murder was committed at night. The police determined today from

TWEITMOE AND CLANCY TO GO EAST

Agree to Waive Extradition Proceedings and Face the Court in Indianapolis.

Indictments Returned in Los Angeles Against Labor Leaders Quashed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Olat Tveitmo and E. A. Clancy, the local labor leaders, waiving extradition, have decided to stand their trials in Indianapolis and will surrender themselves and plead not guilty in the Indiana metropol on the first Monday in October. Because of the fact that the indictments against them in California are to be quashed they have consented to go East, where true bills were returned against the labor leaders of the country in wholesale fashion, and take their chances with the other defendants.

The decision was made this morning before United States Commissioner Krull. Tveitmo and Clancy were on hand, accompanied by their attorney, Bert Schlessinger, and Assistant District Attorney McKinley appeared for the government. A stipulation was then filed by which it was agreed between the defendants and the government that if the California indictments were quashed they would go to Indianapolis for trial.

Commissioner Krull remarked that such a stipulation had nothing whatever to do with the matter before him, which referred to the Indiana accusations and not to those returned in Los Angeles. It was represented to him, however, that if the stipulation was made part of the record he could take account of it.

There was some discussion regarding the matter, after which the defendants were held to answer before the Federal Court at Indianapolis, to appear the first Monday in October. Clancy's bonds were fixed at $10,000 and those of Tveitmo at $5,000. These are the figures at which they have already been fixed and it will only be necessary for a rearrangement of the bail money.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM DISCUSSED BY EXPERTS

Employees Should Be Promoted According to Efficiency, Say Chicagoans

Civil service regulations which reward efficiency rather than political "pull," classify each employee according to duty, regardless of title, and assure him his position, formed the theme of speeches made last night by Mayor James M. Miley and Elton Lower, the Chicago civil service experts who are aiding the civil service officials of this city.

The two experts told of the work of systematizing civil service at the meeting of the Municipal Civil Service Employees' Association, at which they were the principal speakers. Harrison S. Robinson of the local civil service board also spoke, and William Henry Dwyer acted as chairman.

EFFICIENCY, NOT "PULL." "We have taken the employment of the city's workers out of politics in Chicago," said Elton Lower, one of the experts, "and have made efficiency, not 'pull,' the principal requisite for success. It is all a matter of system."

The meeting was held in the chambers of the city council and several hundred employees of the city, with their friends, were present. The affair was principally for the purpose of permitting the city's employees to greet the Chicago experts and to hear the plans for improving the civil service organization of Oakland.

AIMS OF SERVICE. "The Aims of the Civil Service Board," was the subject of Harrison S. Robinson, whose speech opened the meeting.

"The civil service board," said he, "is primarily to save the money of the taxpayer and to secure the highest possible efficiency in public office. We started to ascertain what could be done in what to us was a pioneer field, and found that the primary aim of civil service was efficiency. We found that Chicago was the best example of what can be done by civil service. We saw what Chicago is doing and the high degree of skill Chicago officials show, and so we asked the experts of that city to aid us in planning our system for the benefit of the city and for you, as employees."

After some months of delay these officials have agreed to aid us and are here for this purpose. We have, through them, the fundamental ideas applied to our conditions. They can tell us how to apply the principle of civil service to our case."

CHICAGO CONDITIONS. Elton Lower was the second speaker.

"It is not my purpose to make a big speech," said Lower, "but I will endeavor to answer questions. I will try to tell you how our civil service law works in Chicago."

"We held examinations, when I came in, without paying attention as to what positions were to be filled. We paid no attention to promotion examinations. "Conditions became so bad that the people of the city decided that civil service was a failure. "We noted that great corporations used a form of civil service, measuring efficiency, and we decided to do the same thing. We had a commission of experts, who studied the subject, and during the life of that commission many efficient men were employed.

"These men stayed in the service. That commission determined that there were three great factors entering into efficiency. System, training and good habits were the points brought up as necessary for a city employee.

"JUST HAVE HEAD. "Unless you have a man behind your system you will not have good results. You must train employees, protect them, their positions, and give them a chance to advance."

"The city of Chicago," said Miley, "has all branches of employees under civil service. Not only is the work done well by civil service employees, but all are well satisfied."

"This is due largely to the work done by the civil service commission. Political pull and the personal equation have been eliminated by the plan. It is simply an organization of men who are qualified to do the work necessary."

"When we took charge men were circumscribed by legislation and rules, and thus wasted time. We systematized this, placed each man in responsibility, as far as his own work was concerned, and have found that good results have come of our changes."

USE COMMON SENSE. "We do not try to speed a man up or legislate him out of a job, but try to use common sense, and thus insure greater efficiency. "A man increases in efficiency as he grows old in service, but must be promoted, or his efficiency will drop. Therefore a system of promotion is necessary. The civil service employees feel that they have what they have long striven for—a fair shake."

CHIEF DUTIES. "The old practice of changing the names of offices to do away with employees for political reasons is gone in Chicago. We have evolved a standard of duties. We have fixed maximum salaries and graded employees by salaries fixed on seniority. "We pay no attention in the civil service office to titles. We investigate duties and grade accordingly. "Politics makes no change in the civil service employees. I saw one mayor walk out and another walk in without a man losing his job. No one was in danger except, perhaps, the civil service commission."

BOXES HUBBY'S EARS IN COURT

Mrs. Lora Rustonia Listens to Recital of Cruelty and Acts.

Judge Lets Her Off With Reprimand and Gives Spouse His Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—When Mrs. Lora Rustonia had listened to all of the cruel acts attributed to her by her husband, John B. Rustonia, a saloonkeeper, this morning she went up to him in court and pulled his ears.

Superior Judge Conley, who was sitting in the extra session department, where the incident occurred, was much perturbed and at a loss as to just what punishment to mete out to her. Incidentally the courtroom was in an uproar and Rustonia was much discomfited.

When the saloonman had taken his seat after his testimony in support of a divorce action, his wife rushed up to him, cried, "Har," dramatically seized hold of the lobes of his organs of hearing and proceeded to box them. A bailiff interfered and she was brought up before the bar.

"You are in contempt of court," said Judge Conley, "and I ought to send you to jail, but as you are a woman, I won't."

Rustonia got his divorce.

We Don't Do So Much Brain Work, After All

"Brain Fog" Isn't Killing Off Man: It's Worry and Dissipation, Says Professor.

KANSAS CITY, April 2.—"Brain fog" from overwork is not making nervous wrecks of Americans, as some "alarmists" insist, and the stress and worry of the new century is not driving Americans insane, according to Dr. Charles E. Mills, professor of neurology in the University of Pennsylvania, who addressed the annual reunion of Pennsylvania alumni here last night.

"Mere brain work does not hurt," Dr. Mills said. "Where the mind is equipped and capable men may be at work all day and half the night. Embarrassment, worry and dissipation cause nervous breakdowns. No task ever harmed a man who was worthy of it."

POSSE TRACES FUGITIVES IN HILLS

Neighbors Say Allen Was Seen in the Fancy Gap Neighborhood.

Sheriff and Deputies Watching Base of Supplies; Men Cornered, They Say.

HILLSVILLE, Va., April 2.—A second attempt to run down Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards with bloodhounds began today, when the dogs were taken to a new trail in the Fancy Gap section of the Blue Ridge, near Floyd Allen's home. Positive information that the men who are believed to have played the leading parts in the Carroll courtroom shooting were seen in that section yesterday had been brought to the detectives by Sclips Gray and Alexander McGraw, residents of the neighborhood.

The two dogs being used in the search are the prize trailers of the state farm pack, and it is regarded as certain that they will lead the detectives to the outlaws' hiding place if given a chance.

According to the latest theory of the searchers, the fugitives have been moving slowly back and forth between two bases of supplies, one being the home of a relative, Hubbard Eastern, near where they were seen yesterday, and the other ten miles away through the mountains.

Every available man has been summoned to join the outlaw hunters at Volunteer Gap, thirteen miles from here, where Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards are believed to have been located. Sergeant White and Corporal Hartigan of the Virginia militia have gone to join the posse. It is believed the fugitives have been cornered and news of their capture is expected every moment.

Cut-Cut-Ca-Daw-Cut! Being Hen's Last Lay

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 2.—A hen's egg, 8 1/2 inches in circumference, is an exhibition at the Utah Products Exposition here this week. In attempting to make a world's record of the hen, which belongs to Elmer Apelgren of Salt Lake City, gave up her life.

Notwithstanding the grief in the family and the peril of the undertaking, a sister of the deceased laid today an egg that measures 7 3/4 inches

SEES ANOTHER HUG WIFE; BING!

Bounces Brick Off Head of a Stranger Who Is Embracing Spouse.

Jealous Husband Will Hereafter Look Before He Throws.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 2.—When Oscar Johnson was about to enter his home last night he saw a stranger embracing his wife, so he seized a brick, rushed into the house and struck the stranger such a tremendous blow on the head that he was knocked unconscious and may have suffered a fractured skull.

Then Johnson investigated and found that the unconscious man was his own father, O. W. Johnson, of Peoria, Ill., whom he had not seen for fifteen years and who had come here to surprise his son with a visit.

When Mrs. Johnson saw her husband strike his father she went into hysterics and is threatened with complete nervous breakdown. She declared she would seek a divorce from a husband whose jealousy was so unreasonable and whose suspicions were so unfounded.

Johnson said he would take a second look before he leaped again, and sought a physician, who probably will attend both the wife and father for some time.

Pays His Bills With Stock in Heaven

Ohio Man Issues Stock in the Blue Dome in Exchange for a Meal.

SHARON, Pa., April 2.—For issuing state certificates good for a certain number of shares in heaven in exchange for a meal, a shave and clothing, Henry Benjamin, believed to be from Youngstown, Ohio, is in custody here pending an investigation.

Benjamin first visited a restaurant. After eating a hearty meal he handed the waiter a slip of paper which read "Good for one share of stock in heaven." As it was April 1 the waiter accepted the incident as a merry April fool joke and allowed Benjamin to depart.

A barber was next given some of the celestial stock in payment for a shave. He protested, but Benjamin managed to get out of the shop and was taken by the police while attempting to settle a clothing bill of $44 in the same manner.

Figures Tell The Story

The TRIBUNE'S Progress—The ENQUIRER'S Decadence

Once again Oakland's big daily, THE TRIBUNE, demonstrates its superiority as an advertising medium over every evening paper in the Bay Section, and the comparison in the local field is still more powerful evidence of the fact that

Advertisers know the paper that produces the returns

TRIBUNE makes gain—Enquirer shows a loss—Here are the figures:

	MARCH, 1911	MARCH 1912
TRIBUNE	39244 inches	42967 inches	TRIBUNE gained	3723 inches
ENQUIRER	26056 inches	23999 inches	Enquirer Lost	2057 inches

It's a bad state of affairs for our Tenth Street Contemporary.

BUT the local merchant KNOWS—the Foreign Advertiser KNOWS—the housewife KNOWS that The Tribune is printing the best evening newspaper West of Chicago today.

Hence the story of the above figures.

Everybody who uses publicity wants a "live" paper

SHORT CHANGERS
ARE FOUND GUILTYGiven County Jail Sentences and Denied Alternative of Paying Fines.

ALAMEDA, April 2.—Carl Brackenridge and James Alexander were found guilty of petty larceny by trial jury this morning by Judge Aaron Turner of Oakland sitting in the Alameda police court for Judge R. B. Tappan. The two were sentenced to six months each in the county jail.

The two men were accused of swindling numerous Alameda and Berkeley merchants through working the short change game. Brackenridge showed considerable familiarity with the law and made fair progress with his defense until Assistant District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes found him up in a web of his own weaving.

Judge Turner in summing up the case, said that Brackenridge showed considerable degree of criminal cunning. After being sentenced to jail the men asked for a fine alternative, but Judge Turner denied the request and they will have to serve out their terms.

Among the Berkeley and Alameda merchants who were victimized and who testified against Brackenridge and Alexander were J. F. McMurray of Modern grocery; William Ives, driver for Alameda bakery; Christensen, grocer in Hancock street; at High street; Max Frank, music dealer; Park street; George Wadsworth, clerk for C. P. Maganuco; and the following Berkeley dealers: Jas. M. Bullard, grocer on Alcatraz avenue; Benton Mounce, grocer on Shattuck avenue; and L. Alford, Berkeley cigar dealer.

FRUITVALE YOUTH
REPORTED MISSINGWidow Crumley Disappears
With Dog and Police
Search for Him.

UPPER FRUITVALE, April 2.—Saying that he was going out for half an hour to give his collie dog exercise in the hills, Wadlow Crumley, grandson of Mrs. Ralph Hoppe, left the latter's home, 3201 Thirty-fifth avenue, on March 28, and has not been heard of since. Neither has the dog returned.

It is feared by Mrs. Hoppe, who is on the verge of a nervous breakdown, that Crumley was overcome by ill health while wandering about the hills or has met with foul play. At the time he left home he had but 35 cents in his pocket and was dressed in a blue coat, overalls, not brown hat, soft brown shirt and button shoes.

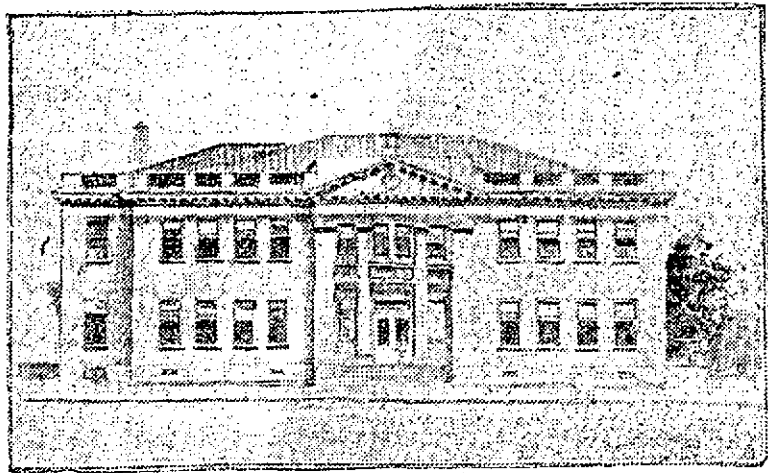

The fact that he fully intended to return is plain from having left his entire belongings with his step-grandmother. Crumley came from Cottage Grove, Oregon, about three weeks ago and expected to go into the employment of the H. C. Capwell Company, in Oakland. He is the son of Charles Crumley, a prominent minister of San Bernardino. He is described as being five feet in height, weighs 140 pounds, has light brown hair and brown eyes. He is 20 years old.

The police have been asked to search for the missing man. Several individuals in this section have made a vain search in the hills.

BAY FEDERATION WILL

The Bay Federation of Mothers' Clubs will hold its annual convention in San Jose on Thursday, April 4. The delegates from Oakland, nearly all of whom will leave first and Broadway at 8:30 a. m. and are expected to number 100 or more.

The convention will be addressed by Mrs. A. L. Hamilton, state president of the federation, of Los Angeles, who will report on the national convention recently held in the east. Mrs. Hamilton will make her report to the governor previous to the appearance at the bay convention.

GYMNASIUM AND SCHOOL TO BE BUILT AT COST OF $30,000

Architect's Drawing of New St. Joseph's Hall and Gymnasium, Now in Process of Construction.

BERKELEY, April 2.—Construction commenced this week on the new gymnasium hall to be erected by the parishioners of St. Joseph's church at a cost of $30,000. It is expected the building will be finished and ready for occupancy by July 1, when its dedication will be held with suitable ceremonial.

The new structure is to be three stories, the lower story or basement being used for billiard rooms, bowling alley and the like. School rooms and offices will be located on the next floor with a number of meeting rooms for clubs and socialities. On the third floor will be located a hall with a seating capacity of 900. Complete stage equipment and dressing rooms are planned here, as well as various gymnastic apparatus. Swimming tanks, 26 by 60 feet, will be in the old building in that part now occupied by the boys' school.

The building will be located on the lot adjoining the site of St. Joseph's church, with which it will conform in the Romanesque architecture which the church follows. J. T. Carter of San Francisco designed the structure, while Kadden and McCullough of this city are the builders.

So far as can be determined none of the cult suffered death in any of the ceremonies of sacrifice. The mysterious killings instilled terror into every negro in South Louisiana and Eastern Texas. In many communities blacks would not stir from their homes at night and doors at negro cabins that never before had known a lock were barred.

CHICAGO EXPERTS ARE GUESTS OF CHAMBER

Elton Lower and Major James Miles, members of the Chicago Civil Service commission, now in Oakland as guests of the city, assisting in the establishment of the local service, were guests of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. They visited the rooms of the Chamber, Thirteenth and Harrison streets, and thoroughly examined the exhibit of Alameda county products on display there, speaking very highly of the nature of the display and its preparation under the direction of W. BANK CLERK TO BE TRIED
FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERYWarren Boorman, Accused of Holding Up
Milkman, Held to Answer

ALAMEDA, April 2.—Warren Boorman, the 17-year-old bank clerk accused of holding up Harry Richardson at the point of a pistol, was today held for trial before the Superior Court on a charge of assault with intent to commit highway robbery. He is held in lieu of $2000 bond.

It is expected that Dr. A. A. Stafford and M. H. Owen, who were on Boorman's first bond, will qualify again this afternoon for the prosecution. Boorman will be given his liberty up to the time of his trial.

Boorman did not take the stand in his own behalf. The only witnesses who were called were to the commission, and Police Officer William Deuser, who arrested Boorman on the night of the hold-up. Attorney Rose, representing Boorman, moved for a dismissal just before Judge Turner held Boorman for trial.

The examination of Boorman was held before Judge Aaron Turner of Oakland, sitting in the Alameda Police Court in lieu of Judge R. B. Tappan. Assistant District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes appeared for the prosecution and Attorney J. L. Rose defended Boorman. The courtroom was crowded with spectators.

ACCUSED SHOWS COOLNESS.

Young Boorman sat between his attorney and father. He was well dressed and carried himself with a cool and self-possession. He looked straight at Harry Richardson, the principal witness for the prosecution, while Richardson was telling of the holdup and alleging that Boorman was the robber.

Richardson took the stand with the opening of the case. He is foreman for the Western Dairy Company and said he was delivering milk in West Alameda Thursday night. The holdup took place in front of a residence at 529 Pacific avenue at 8:50 o'clock. Just after Richardson had made a milk delivery. The robber thrust a revolver in Richardson's face and tersely demanded: "Out with your money." The robber said Richardson's pockets and finding no money, permitted the milkman to go. Richardson drove quickly two blocks to Webster street and Santa Clara avenue and found Police Officer William Deuser, who arrested young Boorman not far from the scene of the robbery. Boorman had a blue-finished revolver in his pocket. Boorman wore a hat and overcoat similar to the hat and coat worn by the highwayman.

IDENTITIES BOARMAN.

On the stand this morning Richardson positively identified Boorman as highwayman, basing his identification on the coat and hat, the pistol, the lower portion of Boorman's face and the height and general physical appearance of the highwayman and of Boorman. The pistol was introduced into court as the exhibit A, and the two shells it contained were introduced as exhibit B.

Richardson proved an excellent witness, refusing to be tripped up in the cross-examination. When asked several times if the highwayman was a clean-shaven Richardson supplemented his affirmative answer, after previous similar answers, with the words "I could not tell whether he had been shaved that night or later."

Assistant District Attorney Hynes interjected with, "Mr. Richardson, what Mr. Rose wants to know is whether he had a beard or mustache, as we generally understand a beard and mustache. Some people like Mr. Rose have to shave twice a week, while others shave but once a week, but still are called clean-shaven."

Richardson detailed his sensations when the pistol was leveled at his head and the muzzle was within inches of his body. He admitted his Young Boorman sat between his attorney and father. He was well dressed and carried himself with a cool and self-possession. He looked straight at Harry Richardson, the principal witness for the prosecution, while Richardson was telling of the holdup and alleging that Boorman was the robber.

Richardson took the stand with the opening of the case. He is foreman for the Western Dairy Company and said he was delivering milk in West Alameda Thursday night. The holdup took place in front of a residence at 529 Pacific avenue at 8:50 o'clock. Just after Richardson had made a milk delivery. The robber thrust a revolver in Richardson's face and tersely demanded: "Out with your money." The robber said Richardson's pockets and finding no money, permitted the milkman to go. Richardson drove quickly two blocks to Webster street and Santa Clara avenue and found Police Officer William Deuser, who arrested young Boorman not far from the scene of the robbery. Boorman had a blue-finished revolver in his pocket. Boorman wore a hat and overcoat similar to the hat and coat worn by the highwayman.

IDENTITIES BOARMAN.

On the stand this morning Richardson positively identified Boorman as highwayman, basing his identification on the coat and hat, the pistol, the lower portion of Boorman's face and the height and general physical appearance of the highwayman and of Boorman. The pistol was introduced into court as the exhibit A, and the two shells it contained were introduced as exhibit B.

Richardson proved an excellent witness, refusing to be tripped up in the cross-examination. When asked several times if the highwayman was a clean-shaven Richardson supplemented his affirmative answer, after previous similar answers, with the words "I could not tell whether he had been shaved that night or later."

Assistant District Attorney Hynes interjected with, "Mr. Richardson, what Mr. Rose wants to know is whether he had a beard or mustache, as we generally understand a beard and mustache. Some people like Mr. Rose have to shave twice a week, while others shave but once a week, but still are called clean-shaven."

Richardson detailed his sensations when the pistol was leveled at his head and the muzzle was within inches of his body. He admitted his

INJUNCTION MAY BLANKET
BERKELEY RECALL ELECTIONClaim That Reduction of Reason Is Illegal, to Be Used, Is Claim

BERKELEY, April 2.—Conferences recently held by several local citizens with City Attorney R. C. Staats leads him to believe that the recall movement will be blanketed with an injunction before the election is held on April 30. Staats refuses to divulge the names of the parties who approached him in the matter, but declares they were determined to ask a stay to prevent the casting of ballots.

As the basis on which an injunction is to be sought is that recently raised before the council by Vincent Surr, an attorney of San Francisco, to the effect that power is delegated to any city official or to any one else to reduce the 385-word reason in the recall petitions to the 200 words to be printed in the election call, it is rumored that Surr is the one who is to seek the injunction. He is out of the city today.

Such an act, which the city attorney would invalidate the election. The recall petitioners, however, are not so easily deterred. They are determined to proceed to the polls and to vote. They are determined to proceed to the polls and to vote. They are determined to proceed to the polls and to vote.

Professor William Carey Jones of the University of California, the "daddy of the charter," gave the council his version of the matter. He was one of the original framers of the charter. He believed that the preparation of the 200-word statement was rightly to be decided by the council. He believed that the preparation of the 200-word statement was rightly to be decided by the council.

Until the council has proceeded to print the charter with the 385-word statement, the proposed injunction must wait. Such an act will be considered by the council. They are determined to proceed to the polls and to vote. They are determined to proceed to the polls and to vote.

The Citizens' Election Committee, through Chairman Cornish, today issued a statement regarding the Berkeley recall petitioners. The statement said that the recall petitioners are determined to proceed to the polls and to vote. They are determined to proceed to the polls and to vote.

NEEDS FOR PLAN.
The statement follows:
"What is the Berkeley plan of education adopted two years ago. This plan arose from two needs. One was the fact that the city of Berkeley had no need more than merely local, it lay in certain educational problems which had been the concern of educators for decades. The success of the Berkeley system therefore was of national consequence, and the issue of the present election is not less important.

"The Berkeley plan of education developed from a re-organization of the school department which was recommended to the board of education by Superintendent Frank F. Bunker on November 30, 1909. In his report of that date Bunker wrote:

"This plan for a proposed re-organization of the school department of Berkeley is a direct result of an urgent need which must be met at an early date by the board of education, namely, the need of providing class rooms in sufficient number to meet the prospective growth of the high school. Inasmuch as within four years the city has bonded itself for school purposes to an aggregate of $750,000, it seems to me that at this time the board of education should take every possible alternative for meeting this need before adding further burdens to an already heavily taxed community. It is to obviate the necessity of rebonding the city which I present to you another plan which I believe has the merit of providing for the future needs of the city on the part of the community, sufficient room for years to come. In addition to obviating the need for further bonding of the city at this time, I believe the plan can be fully justified on educational grounds, and that not only will the taxpayers be relieved of this extra burden, but in addition thereto, the efficiency of the school department as a whole will be increased."

CREATED GROUP.
"Accordingly, the plan proposed was adopted, creating a group of distinctive school institutions called Lower High Schools, at which are gathered the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, of the extra curriculum, and the study of the original framers of the charter. He believed that the preparation of the 200-word statement was rightly to be decided by the council. He believed that the preparation of the 200-word statement was rightly to be decided by the council.

"In our judgment, Mr. Bunker is building on a sound foundation. His plan of institutions will increase the flexibility and adaptability of the school system to pupils of varying needs and conditions."

"Dr. A. E. Winship, editor of the Boston Journal of Education, and an eminent educator, recently wrote: 'The Berkeley plan of education is a state university as much as has Madison or Ann Arbor, and it means nothing more until Superintendent Bunker becomes superintendent and he has really been able to make it signify several things entirely apart from the university. He has done this by making Berkeley stand for the most pronounced progress along some public school lines of any city in the world. It is a plan that is no slight achievement in these days.'"

MUNICIPAL PLANT
LEASE IS BARREDCity Attorney Rules Alameda
Must Operate Electric Light Works.

ALAMEDA, April 2.—There will be no leasing of the municipal plant other than to S. E. Biddle, who recently made a proposition to the city to operate the plant, or to any other person or corporation, according to an official opinion of City Attorney A. P. Surr, who is to be delivered to the city council at its regular meeting tonight. Surr points out that under the provisions of the city charter, a board of electricity is created and certain powers are given to it, among them being that of operating and maintaining the municipal plant.

There is no power vested in the city council under the charter. Surr points out, giving it the right to do away with the electricity commission, and the lease of the plant and its operation by others than the city, removing the necessity for the existence of the commission of board, would practically mean its abolition.

There are other reasons, he says, why the leasing of the plant would be illegal, but he considers this one the most thoroughly covers the question, that the necessity for stating any more is removed.

State, Utah, Arizona and Elsewhere.

BERKELEY, April 2.—The thirty-ninth annual convention of the Occidental Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian church opened this afternoon with a session at the Berkeley Y. M. C. A. The initial meeting took the form of a young people's rally.

Delegates to the convention from California, Utah and Arizona have sent delegates to the convention. The chief speaker at this afternoon's rally was Rev. Arthur Hicks. An address was also given by N. Poon Ching, editor of the Chung Sui Yat Po, Chinese daily newspaper of San Francisco. Hicks was given by Chinese mission girls from San Francisco. Dinner is to follow the rally.

Regular sessions are to be held at St. John's Presbyterian church on College avenue in the afternoon and evening. Election of officers and appointment of committees are on the program for this evening.

Oakland Fans Will Get Chance to Root for Home Team Thursday Afternoon

THERE WILL BE BIG TIME AT OAKLAND OPENING DAY

Reception and Luncheon for Members of Local Ball Team; Big Parade.

All arrangements have been perfected for the big opening of the Coast League baseball season in Oakland on Thursday afternoon.

The Progress and Prosperity Committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will act as host to both the Oakland and San Francisco teams at a complimentary luncheon on Capitol's roof garden previous to the parade, which will start at 1:30 and after traversing the principal business streets, will head for Freeman's park where the first game of the season on the east side of the bay will start at 3:15 o'clock with Mayor Mott tossing the first ball.

Reserved seats for the opening game in Oakland as well as all games played on Sunday mornings and holidays can be secured either at Lynn Stanley's haberdashery, Broadway near Thirteenth, or at Berovich's cigar stores.

CHICAGO EXPERIENCES ITS COLDEST MARCH

CHICAGO, April 2.—March, 1912 has been recorded in Chicago's history as the coldest March ever known here. Statistics of the weather bureau dating back forty years fail to show a March with such mean temperature.

With the record-breaking cold of January and February, March brought to a close the most severe winter from the standpoint of low temperature known in the city's history.

These facts were set forth last night in a meteorological summary issued by Professor J. Cox in charge of the weather bureau. The total deficiency of temperature from January 1 to the end of March was 683 degrees.

REAGAN TO BOX AGAIN.

BUTTE, Mont., April 2.—Jimmy Reagan of San Francisco, and Tully Johns of Butte, were matched last night for a six round contest here April 16. They recently fought a draw here.

William L. Cook, proprietor of the Bee Five Drug Store, N. Main, Mont., says the Belt Canon running from Belt to N. Main is the most picturesque spot in all Montana. He writes: "I recommend Billy's Honey and Tar compound to all my customers and never disappointed. It gives the best results for coughs and colds of anything I sell." ### PLAY BALL

But play with the Cork Center Ball

Adopted by the National League for twenty years the Official Ball of the World Series. It plays exactly the same in the ninth, tenth and twelfth innings as in the first, and does not grow dead and soggy under heavy hitting, but keeps the game interesting for both players and spectators. It is the Cork Center Ball. It is made of a special material, the same as the National and American League balls, and every professional league in this country has adopted it for its future—they play together with the Cork Center Ball. Try it in your next game—The Spalding "Official National League" Cork Center Ball, $1.25 each.

BEST COAST LEAGUE PLAYER WILL GET BUZZ WAGON

E. F. Brinegar of the Pioneer Automobile Company, Chalmers agents for California, announces today that he will give a Chalmers car to the best ballplayer in the Pacific Coast League for the coming season. This car will be one of the famous self-starting Chalmers model "36," the price being $2050, and is a trophy well worth the best efforts of any ballplayer in the league. A duplicate of this car was sold to William Lange by the Pioneer Automobile Company last week and was driven by him in the parade today.

The manner of deciding upon the best ballplayer will be similar to the rules governing a similar trophy given by Chalmers to the National League last year. Some well-known ball authority will be named as chairman of the committee and he will select four or five others who will probably be newspaper men. This committee will decide on the ballplayer who has shown the best all-round work for the season, at which time the Chalmers car will be awarded.

Hugh Chalmers, as well as Brinegar, are both enthusiastic baseball fans and this contest will be watched with a great deal of interest.

BROTHER OF COMEDIAN TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Lewis L. Kolb, a brother of Clarence Kolb, the comedian, was taken ill on the steamer Claremont while coming to this city from Oakland last evening. He was treated at the Harbor Hospital by Dr. Skooneberg. Kolb, who is 35 years old, has been ill for some time and was seized with a fainting spell.

KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED BY COMPANION

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Arthur Frail, who lives at Seamen's Institute, 242 Stuart street, was "struck" by two strangers to a vacant lot late last night and beaten and robbed. While in a Market street saloon Frail encountered the pair and at their solicitation accompanied them down Third street. Several stops were made at bar rooms en route and finally Frail was shoved into a vacant lot, knocked down and a watch and $25 taken.

RAY BRONSON TO BOX ENGLISH ONCE AGAIN

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 1.—Ray Bronson of Indianapolis and Clarence English of Omaha will meet here tonight in a 15-round bout which is expected to dispose of one of the claimants of the welter-weight title.

EXHIBITION GAMES

At Baltimore—Baltimore 4, Philadelphia Nationals 3.
At Newark—Newark 3, Philadelphia Americans 2 (14 innings).

At Indianapolis—Indianapolis 2, Brooklyn 4.

FLOCK INTO SACRAMENTO

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Sacramento is feeling the effects of the misleading advertisements circulated in the East advising workmen to come to California, where there is more work to be done than there are men to do it, with the result that the free labor bureau conducted by the city is unable to supply jobs for a fifth of those who apply, according to Frank E. Cooke, the city labor commissioner.

THIRD BASEMAN JIMMY FRICK, WHO HAS SUCCEEDED IN CROWDING GUS HETLING AND BILL HILLE OFF OF THE DIFFICULT CORNER WITH THE OAKLAND TEAM.

RAY BRONSON SHOWS HIS WORTH WITH ENGLISH

Indianapolis Scrapper Out-points Opponent After 10 Rounds of Milling.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 2.—Ray Bronson of Indianapolis, was awarded a well-earned decision over Clarence English of Omaha in a fifteen round bout here last night. Bronson did not take the aggressive until near the end of the fight and after a cut had been opened under his left eye.

English started in to carry the fight to Bronson and used right and left swings effectively while Bronson, after he had missed the same blows repeatedly, devoted his efforts to straight punches. He had English splitting blood in the fourth and fifth round. Wicked right chops to the face caused blood to come in spurts from Bronson's gashed eye. As the fight progressed, English weakened from kidney weakness and Bronson, apparently as strong as ever, became more aggressive and at the close had English bested.

Bronson appeared much the stronger and wrestled the Omaha man about the ring with one hand, while playing a latiss on his face with the other. The blows lacked steam, however, and did no visible damage to his opponent's face.

YOUNG TOGO WOULD TAKE A LICKING FOR BUNCH OF KALE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Young Togo, the Japanese bantam, is after Abe Attell's scalp. Through his manager, he has a proposition to fight Abe on a winner-take-all proposition, providing, however, that Abe does 118 pounds ring-side. Togo stands but four feet, ten inches and is a stocky built chap. He recently fought Battling Nelson and took a licking, but he stood the gaff, and wants a crack at Attell.

NOW THE BUNKISTS ARE CLEANING UP CEDAR RAPIDS

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, April 2.—Joe Spunk, champion heavyweight wrestler of Bohemia, defeated Frank Pischel of Germany here last night in two straight falls. Spunk's announcement at the ring that he would not return to Bohemia until he has secured a match with Gotch.

FAST CONTESTS ARE PLAYED BY KIDS AT ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, April 2.—Following are the results of games in the lightweight class of the park and playground league played yesterday: McKinley Park Bantams defeated Lincoln Park Bantams by a score of 9 to 8.

The second middleweight team of Lincoln defeated the Washington Park Pigmies by a score of 20 to 2. The Lincoln Park Intermediates got away with the Jackson Park Intermediates by a score of 4 to 2.

On April 3 at Lincoln park, the St. Mary's Victors are to play the Lincoln park team. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

The DeFreney Intermediate team will play the Lincoln park Intermediates on April 4, at 3:30 o'clock. This game will also be played at Lincoln park.

EASTERN COLLEGES AGREE ON FOOTBALL RULES

Big Eight Conference Meet to Modify Playing Ideas of Pastime.

URBANA, Ill., April 2.—It is the plan of the heads of the "Big Eight" conference to make their own football rules hereafter. President James of the University of Illinois told the university senate yesterday.

The presidents gathered at Chicago were unanimous in one thing at least," he said. "That was that it was time for the conference to take hold of the rule-making. There is no reason why the conference should not play under their own rules, no reason why the western schools should be at the mercy of the east. The west, I believe, is mainly in favor of the open game of football, with mass play eliminated and many critics believe the new code of 1912 is a partial return to the old game."

DE ORO IS CRACK AT POCKET BILLIARDS BACK EAST

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Three games were played yesterday in the pocket billiard tournament in progress here. In the afternoon games, de Oro defeated Delaneh, 150 to 37 and Ralph won from King 150 to 125. De Oro had one continuous run of 142, de Oro scored 32 without a miss.

In the night match Maturu defeated Sherman, 150 to 122. Maturu's best continuous run was 19 and Sherman's 13.

SWIMMING CONTESTS AT SWEDEN WILL BE HELD AT NIGHT

NEW YORK, April 2.—The official program of the swimming events in the Olympic games has just been received here from Kristian Helander, the Swedish secretary. The dates are from July 6 to July 12, and all the swimming will be done in the evening.

LABOR UNIONS WILL BOYCOTT BALL TEAM

LYNN, Mass., April 2.—Four hundred members of the United Shoe Workers have voted not to attend this season the baseball games in which the Lawrence team is engaged because officials of the Lawrence club refused to allow the use of their baseball park for a meeting while the recent textile strike was on.

COACH AT YALE CALLS FOR FOOTBALL MEN TO PRACTICE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 2.—Head Coach Arthur Hove of the Yale football team has issued a call for candidates for next year's team to report for practice immediately after college opens after the Easter recess April 11.

An innovation in the spring practice is planned this year, in having two teams line up against each other daily. Before the spring practice has been light

INDOOR SWIMMERS TO MEET AT CHICAGO THIS WEEK

CHICAGO, April 1.—Indoor swimming will come to an end for the season in Chicago this week with Princeton university the attraction at the Chicago Athletic association, Illinois Athletic club and Northwestern university.

The eastern swimmers will also meet the University of Illinois. Huzagah and McDermott of the G. A. M. and Perry McGillivray, and Reber of the I. A. C. each a champion in his specialty, are some of the men the Princeton men will try to defeat.

JOE JEANNETTE IS AT BEST PICKING THE EASY ONES

NEW YORK, April 2.—Joe Jeannette, the heavyweight so far outclassed Giff Jones last night that the referee stopped in the fourth round what had been scheduled to be a ten round bout.

Jones showed up fairly well for two rounds, but in the third was knocked down several times, and a knockout in sight when the referee waved Jeannette back to his corner.

FAGAN AND MORROW TO MEET IN ARENA FOR M'CAREY

LOS ANGELES, April 1.—Howard Morrow and Bert Bowers alias Bert Fagan, middleweights, will be the principals in the next ring battle to be staged on the Southern coast. This pair of 165-pounders will meet in a scheduled 20-round bout before the Pacific Athletic club at Vernon on the afternoon of April 13, with Charles F. Eylon as referee.

JIMMY SULLIVAN IS SEEKING PLAYERS FOR COLORADO

Jimmy Sullivan, one time catcher for the Seals and later a manager in the Western League, has been appointed manager of the Le Junis team of the Colorado State League and is in quest of players.

Any ambitious youngster that wants to show off the new manager what he can do can have an interview by addressing Sullivan at 419 East Fourteenth street, Oakland.

ALASKA SWEEPSTAKE WILL BE RUN OFF THURSDAY

NOME, Alaska, April 2.—The All-Alaska sweepstake, the world's greatest dog team race, will be run over the 412-mile course from Nome to Canada and return next Thursday. Five teams have been entered, making the purse $5000.

AIRMEN WILL HOLD MEET IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, April 2.—The Aero Club of America has decided to hold a hydro-aeroplane meeting on New York bay and on the Hudson river on May 4.

The events listed are a speed contest, which will be started at Coney Island, a bomb dropping contest and competition for quick getaways.

JOE MANDOT HAS BEST OF HIS BOUT WITH OWEN MORAN

English Boxer Unable to Stop Swings and Rushes of Memphis Boy.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 2.—Joe Mandot had the best of a ten-round bout here last night with Owen Moran. Six of the eight rounds were awarded to Mandot, one went to Moran and in another, the eighth, they were even. In Moran's round, the second round, Mandot went to the floor for the count of nine and came up groggy. The rest of the round he held on, but in the third he came back fresh. During the rest of the fight he fought a trifle wild, but was effective. Neither fighter was punished badly.

Moran was regarded as one of the most formidable obstacles in the way of the New Orleans fighter to a match with Ad Wolgast for the lightweight title.

CHINESE BALL PLAYERS SHOW LITTLE ON DIAMOND

International baseball was the order at California Field yesterday afternoon when the varsity nine came out victor by a score of 4 to 3 in a game with the Chinese baseball team of Hong Kong. The celestials surprised the collegians with the kind of ball they played, but poor fielding revealed their outscoring the Blue and Gold players.

Apau twirled for the Orientals and allowed the varsity men a total of eight hits. Chapman was touched for five bingles in the first seven innings and Conklin was found for two hits in the two final frames. The catching staff was Kan Yen for the Chinese and Sandman and Stoner for the Blue and Gold. Four errors were chalked up against both teams.

Ayun tallied for the Chinese players at the close of the ninth with a sensational two-bagger, which grazed the left field fence and brought home Sing Hung.

MARATHON RACERS TO MEET THIS YEAR AT BERLIN

NEW YORK, April 2.—An international Marathon, which Arthur Parrot, the California promoter, planned to make an annual feature of the spring season at Monaco, is to be held next in Berlin, with Johnny Hayes, Pietro Durando, Gusta Jungstrom, Thure, the French champion, and Wada, a Japanese runner, among the competitors. The date settled upon is May 26, according to advices received here.
